MISSING MAN IS FOUND IN ARIZONA CITY

RICHMOND RECORD HERALD
THE MILITANT PAPER OF CONTRA COSTA CO.

COVERS THE FIELD
The Record-Herald Is Unsurpassed In Its Coverage of Local, State and National News.
An Independent Newspaper

VOL. XXVI, NO. 2708. TELEPHONE 70 RICHMOND, CALIFORNIA TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 21, 1936. TELEPHONE 71 PRICE 5c

KING GEORGE V OF BRITAIN DIES

HOUSE TO ACT ON BONUS

Queen, Family At Monarch's Side As Death Comes

SANDRINGHAM, Norfolk, Eng., Jan. 20.—UP—King George V of England, ruler of 500,000,000 subjects in Great Britain's far-flung empire, died tonight in the 25th year, eighth month, 14th day and 24th hour of his reign. Death occurred at 11:55 P.M.

With the last heartbeat of George V, Edward, Prince of Wales, became king, although the official proclamation did not take place immediately.

FAMILIES PRESENT

Queen Mary, the Prince of Wales and other members of the royal family were at the bedside. The queen was crying softly. She had held the king's hand and listened to his final, labored breathing.

She broke down as His Majesty died, but quickly rallied and kissed the monarch's bearded face, now still in death.

Lord Dawson of Penn, the king's physician since 1907, solemnly announced the king's death, addressing himself to the Prince of Wales.

HEART WEAKENED

"Your Majesty," he said, "your father is dead."

The beloved, 70-year-old monarch passed away peacefully at Sandringham House. His heart, weakened by bronchial catarrah, no longer could stand the strain.

"Death came peacefully in the presence of Her Majesty the Queen, the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Princess Royal and the Duke and Duchess of Kent," the official physician's announcement read. It was signed by Lord Dawson of Penn, the king's physician, and both his associates.

TAKEN ILL FRIDAY

The king was taken ill suddenly Friday. His last appearance in public was Wednesday when he rode

(Continued on page 8)

WALES WILL BE KING OF ALL BRITAIN

LONDON, Jan. 20—UP—With the last heartbeat of George V, a 40-year-old bachelor today became "Edward VIII, King of England, Ireland and the British dominions beyond the sea, defender of the faith and Emperor of India."

The Prince of Wales stepped into the role that destiny and birth had designed for him.

MOST POPULAR MAN

He is the most popular man among the 500,000,000 persons who swear allegiance to the British flag. In the words of another great Briton, the late Rudyard Kipling, Edward of Wales "could walk with kings nor lose the common touch," and it is that attribute that endears him to his subjects.

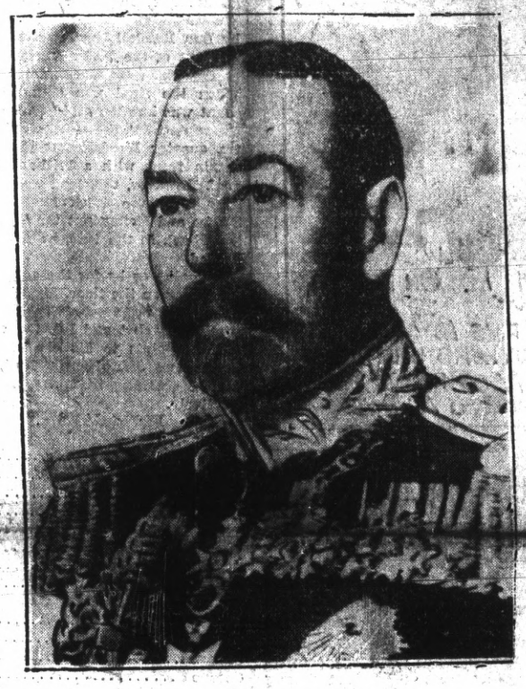

Before the World War he was a high-spirited boy who made the world his playground, moving through Europe and the Americas as a pleasure-loving youth without a care in the world. The sight of slaughter and ruin on the western front made a man out of Edward of Wales, and after the war he began to live up to the motto on his crest, "ich dien"—I serve.

EMPIRE SALESMAN

If Kipling was the poet of em-

(Continued on page 8)

The King Is Dead

DEATH CAME to King George V (above), ruler of Great Britain, beloved monarch of his people, last night at his palace in London. At his side as he breathed his last was his widow, Queen Mary (below). The above pictures were the official photographs of the King and Queen on the occasion of their silver jubilee held last year.

MYSTERY OF ABANDONED CAR SOLVED

The mystery of an abandoned automobile found in Richmond on the evening of January 13 was partly solved last night when police here were informed that the driver of the machine was found in a dazed condition in Tucson, Arizona.

Missing for a week and feared to be the victim of a heart attack, Guyon W. Cortleyou, 48, Oakland insurance broker was found by police of the Arizona town, it was reported.

MEAGER REPORTS

According to meager reports received here, Cortleyou was unable to explain to authorities how he came to Arizona.

Last Monday night the man's machine was found abandoned on a road near the Richfield oil plant on the outer harbor. In the car were a box of pistol cartridges, a whiskey bottle and a pair of men's gloves. The key was in the ignition lock.

CAR ABANDONED

The car was discovered by a lo-

(Continued on page 8)

Repeal Of Shipping Law Is Opposed

By resolution, adopted by a unanimous vote, the council last evening placed itself squarely on record as being opposed to the repeal of the 'Allin amendment' to the 'Intercoastal shipping act of 1933' City Attorney Tom Carlson said that if the amendment is repealed, there is no way of regulating intercoastal shipping, and ports like Richmond, Stockton and Sacramento, would be placed at a great disadvantage.

The mayor and city manager are directed to communicate the resolution to California's representatives in Congress, and also to the proper committee.

TEXT OF RESOLUTION

The resolution adopted reads as follows:

WHEREAS, in his annual report, the Secretary of Commerce has recommended the repeal of the "Allin Amendment" to the "Intercoastal Shipping Act of 1933"; and

WHEREAS, the said "Allin Amendment" has been most beneficial to all the shippers in the great central valleys of California because through it the intercoastal service between the Atlantic and Pacific Coasts through the Canal was made available to the Port of Richmond and all intercoastal lines have extended their service to and have named Richmond as a port of call either by a direct or by a transshipment service; and

WHEREAS, since said amendment became effective in June of 1933, the Port of Richmond has

(Continued on page 8)

APPROVAL IS GIVEN BILL BY SOLONS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20—A compromise bill calling for immediate payment of the $2,237,000,000 soldier bonus in bonds was passed by the Senate 74 to 16 late today and sent to the House which is expected to approve it within 48 hours.

The measure then will be sent to the White House where friends of President Roosevelt have indicated it will be vetoed. Leaders of both Houses, backing the compromise, said tonight they had sufficient votes to override a veto.

NO DEMONSTRATION

There was no demonstration as the Senate voted to take out of politics a question which has harrassed Congress for 17 years and plagued every President since Warren G. Harding. Veteran leaders sat among the huge crowd which jammed all galleries as the final vote was recorded.

The action came in the face of a warning by Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., before the Senate finance committee that payment of the bonus along with other treasury commitments would shoot the public debt to $35,500,000,000 in the next fiscal year. The compromise measure calls for the issuance of $1,800,000,000 in bonds cashable immediately and a cash outlay of more than $87,000,000.

NO APPROPRIATION

The bill carries no appropriation. Chairman Pat Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, of the finance committee said before passage that no compromise bill will be substituted additional taxes would be needed to finance the bonus payment. The

(Continued on page 8)

Scout Leaders' Training School Held At Church

Between 75 and 80 Boy Scout enthusiasts last night attended one of a series of six training courses for Scouters, Scoutmasters and executives held at the First Baptist church.

Richmond Scouters were represented by about 25 officials of the district council.

The group was divided into three sections to study the "Elements of Scoutmastership," "Principles of Scoutmastership and "Commissioners' Work."

Prominent Scouting officials addressed the group. Rev. K. B. Wallace, pastor of the church and host for the occasion, welcomed the Scouters.

In the absence of H. L. Hunn, district training executive, Pat Murphy had charge of the evening.

The next course will be held in Richmond on February 10.

Bitter Fight Is Being Waged Over Bridge Approach

There is a difference of $157,000 between the valuations placed on land of the Tilden Lumber Company in West Berkeley by the State of California and that concern.

The State is seeking a right of way through the Tilden lumber yard, 120 feet wide between University and Hearst avenues, West Berkeley, as part of the highway approach to the great Oakland-San Francisco bridge. The highway department has put up a bond in the sum of $23,000, its estimate of the damage that will result from cutting through the lumber yard. The Tilden people are asking $180,000 claiming that the property will be damaged to that extent.

The case was on trial all last week in the court of Superior Judge W. C. Murphy in Oakland and will not be concluded until the end of this week, an indication of how bitterly the case is being contested.

Al Hill, Richmond lumberman yesterday testified for the lumber company as an expert witness, saying that the taking of the right of way would ruin the property for use as a lumber yard. E. B. Hull, local realty expert will be a witness for the same side today.

Attorney Tom Carlson is representing the Tilden people.

Council Still In The Dark On Tomasini's Plans

City Attorney Tom Carlson made a report to the Council last evening on the letter of P. A. Tomasini in which he referred to possible waterfront developments of a large nature on San Francisco bay in the near future.

Carlson said he had written Congressman Albert Carter for information in relation to the Welch bill now pending before Congress, and when he received a reply he would inform the council.

It was stated that Tomasini was primarily interested in selling land near Albany, through the building of an Albany-Marin bridge, and the advice given was that no action be taken at the present time.

The Welch bill provides for the encouragement of shipbuilding plants on the Pacific Coast, and under its provisions the secretary of the navy is compelled to allocate a certain portion of shipbuilding to the West Coast, provided the bids here are not in excess of six percent of those of Eastern firms. This bill has not yet been adopted.

HEARING POSTPONED

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Jan. 20—UP—Parole application of Leslie B. Henry, former Los Angeles bond salesman serving two to 20 years for forgery and grand theft of $50,000 in securities from Mrs. Charlotte Shelby, mother of Mary Miles Minter, former film star, today was put over until the next meeting of the State Board of Prison Terms and Paroles for formal consideration.

Warning Issued To Car Owners

A warning that only nine days are left in which to secure auto license plates was issued by Inspector E. A. Leber of the State Highway Patrol. Failure to do so will result in 100 percent penalties.

Plates are being issued at the office of the traffic patrol in the city hall and more than 2,000 people have taken advantage of the accommodation offered locally for the first time this year—which leaves over 6,000 motorists who apparently have not paid any attention to this important matter.

In the State more than 1,500,000 car owners have not yet obtained their licenses, which makes the showing here, good in comparison.

DIES IN FIRE

REDWOOD CITY, Jan. 20.—William Clark, 70, was burned to death today in the cabin he occupied in the Fair Oaks district. Deputy Sheriff Thomas Maloney said Clark apparently had fallen asleep while reading and knocked over an oil heater.

City's Health Is Excellent, Report Shows

According to the annual report of Health Commissioner C. R. Blake, presented to the Council last evening, the health of the residents of the city during the past year was excellent.

In that period there were 183 resident deaths, which is but a percentage of 8.13 per 1,000. In the same period however, there was a drop in the birth rate. In 1934 the births numbered 281, while in 1935 there were but 275. And yet the vital statistics show that the population of the city is increasing.

The report shows that the most deaths occurred between the ages of 50 to 60 numbering 44; between 40 to 50 there were 16; between 60 and 70 there were 43, and above 70, 33. The smallest percentage of deaths was practically between 30 and 40.

"A survey of general health conditions, for the past year," the report continues, "reveals the following items of interest:

"There was a decrease in the num

(Continued On Page 5)

Local Woman Is Slightly Hurt In Auto Crash

One person was slightly injured in automobile accidents in Richmond yesterday morning, according to police reports.

Mrs. Annie M. Delaney, 623 Thirty third street, sustained slight cuts and bruises when her car was involved in an accident with a machine driven by S. G. Sapp, of Berkeley, at Barrett and Thirty-third. The woman's car was badly damaged and she was cut by flying glass from a broken windshield.

Cars driven by S. G. Steckel, 224 Santa Fe avenue and F. LeHay, of Richmond, collided at Thirteenth street and Gaynor avenue. No one was injured and only slight damage was done.

THE WEATHER

BAY REGION—
Fair today and tomorrow but with fog in the morning; moderate temperature.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA —
Fair today and tomorrow; morning fog and frosty.

Head Of Lions Clubs Honored With Reception

Honor was paid to Richard J. Osenbaugh, president of the International Association of Lions Clubs at a reception and banquet tendered the distinguished visitor last evening under the auspices of the Golden Gate Council of Lions Clubs, with the Oakland Lions Club acting as host.

Representatives from all Lions clubs in the east bay area were in attendance. Following the dinner a program was given, the Richmond Lions club orchestra furnishing the music and Rev. Meryl Bish offering the invocation. Welcoming speeches were made by Mayor William I. McCracken of Oakland and William J. Hamilton, chairman of the Alameda county board of supervisors and other notables. The honor guest spoke interestingly and at length, his message being received with great enthusiasm. Present also was Melvin Jones, founder of the order, who delivered an inspirational address.

Richmond Lions in attendance at the function were: D. J. Shaw, E. Lane, Al Nystrom, J. O. Ford, Dave Kessler, M. Siesle, Larkin Smith, Ed Hill, Ward McRacken and W. B. Jenkins.

While the reception was going on Mrs. Osenbaugh, wife of the international president was being entertained at a dinner at the Woman's Athletic Club. Other honor guests were Mrs. Luther L. Mack, wife of the district governor and Mrs. Fred Neuschurtz, wife of the district secretary. In attendance from Richmond were Mrs. Paul Fraser and Dr. Irene Jenkins.

Townsend Party Petitions Are Signed By Club

Petitions for the formation of the new Townsend party were circulated last evening at the meeting of the Richmond Townsend Club. More than 200 persons who attended signed the petitions which aim to put the Townsend party on the ballot for the presidential primary in May.

Awaiting formation of the new party, members of the club registered under their old party affiliations. Three registrars are members of the club and they registered all the members present.

Avery J. Moore, prominent Townsend club official, was speaker of the evening. His talk dealt with the aims and ideals of the pension plan and of the new political party. He closed his address with a plea for all members to "go to the polls and vote—not as a Republican, not as a Democrat, but as a Townsendite." George Black, the president of the club introduced Moore. Black announced that next week Ben Wilson, of Berkeley, will be the speaker.

During the business meeting of the club plans were made for a "chili feed" to be held on February 12. Further announcements will be made later.

While the senior club was in session, the junior club met in an adjoining auditorium at the W. O. W. hall and enjoyed a social and business meeting. Plans were made for numerous events to be held in the future.

TROOPS GUARD FACTORIES

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 20.—Governor Paul V. McNutt ordered Floyd and Clark counties, in southern Indiana placed under martial law today as result of disorders occurring in connection with a shirt makers' strike at factories in New Albany and Jeffersonville.

King George Was Loved By Subjects

LONDON, Jan. 20—UP—George the Fifth, King of Great Britain and Ireland and of the far-flung British dominions, Emperor of India and ruler of 486,000 souls, succeeded to the throne May 6, 1910. He was the only surviving son of Edward VII.

He was a wise and beloved monarch. The silver jubilee of his reign was celebrated throughout his empire last year in a vast out-pouring of pageants and ceremonies. His life marked a new era in world affairs, as changing of the western world into the modernity of the twentieth century. It was marked by great discoveries in science and invention, but it was marred by the greatest war the world had ever known.

SHY KING

George was characteristically shy. He did not make friends easily but clung to those he made and supported them firmly and unfailingly. His shyness was an evidence of British reserve, but endeared him to his subjects.

He was schooled in the tradition of his grandmother, Victoria that

(Continued on page 8)

-a word in edgewise; wise and otherwise

P. B. MINER

The opinions expressed in this column are the personal views of the writer and do not necessarily reflect those of the management; in fact, many times they do not.—Editor.

WE LIVE AND LEARN

When scattering some insect powder around the other morning in paying my compliments to anonymous letter writers I had no idea that the author was a woman.

In the early days of my youth the stories of Conan Doyle, detailing the exploits of that great fictional detective, Sherlock Holmes, had a great fascination for me. Not being gifted very strongly with powers of deduction I naturally lavished a great deal of admiration on a man, who although a creation of fancy, could by cold logic discover the perpetrator of a crime.

A couple of days ago I received another anonymous communication, written by the same person. It was very evident the party had read my screed and was attempting to reply to it.

CALLED FOR HELP

I have a friend who is an adept at cross word puzzles but who, with his familiarity with men and their motives, is a genius at putting together human jigg saw pictures. On several previous occasions I have appealed to him to unravel some knotty problems for me and he has successfully done so. I therefore again invoked his unusual talent and now I know the entire story — which is the explanation why in the opening paragraph I pegged the sex of the penman.

CHIVALRY FORBIDS

Chivalry and charity therefore forbids indulgence in the castigation I intended to administer, and circumstances incline me to be forbearing and indulgent, although I can find no excuse in my heart for either man or woman who resorts to anonymity to voice their views on any subject. It is a poor excuse of a person who will not come out

(Continued on page 8)

Local SPORT NEWS FOR FANS AND PLAYERS National

Six Arrested In Mass Meet Against Nazis

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 20.—UP—Four women and two men were arrested today on a charge of parading banners without a permit when they visited the dock where the German cruiser Emden had just docked.

No violence resulted from the anti-Nazi demonstration. Those arrested were held on $10 bail. They asked for an attorney. They gave their names as Esther Layton, secretary of the American League Against War and Fascism; Mary Goold of the International Labor Defense League; Mrs. Violet Olson, Mrs. Levina Bennett, Earl Steward and Frank I. Webber.

The American League against War and Fascism had requested Mayor Joseph K. Carson to ignore arrival of the cruiser, namesake of the famous German sea rover of the World War, but Carson did not change his plans to welcome the officers.

Decision Upsets Arguments On Processing Tax

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20—UP—As Miss Dorothy Williams, U. S. attorney for Pacific Coast processing tax cases argued in Federal court today against return of the taxes to the processors, she was advised of the Supreme Court's refusal in Washington to rehear the rice millers' case in which the AAA was declared unconstitutional.

She immediately announced she would institute action looking toward return of the impounded taxes involved in suits in this district.

The cases involve $2,700,999 paid by six Northern California companies.

Although Miss Williams indicated she would drop her arguments against refund of the taxes, the Federal court took her earlier arguments and the appeal of the Sperry Flour Co. against payment of such taxes under advisement. The court will act on the cases February 3.

Dismissal of the legal motions and return of the money to processors was considered probable.

Processing Tax Ordered Repaid By High Court

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.— The Supreme Court today ordered into immediate effect its decisions that the AAA Act was unconstitutional and that $200,000,000 of processing taxes impounded in Federal courts must be returned to the taxpayers.

This action overruled a request of the Government that it be granted the usual 25 days for filing a request for a reconsideration of the rulings. The announcement was made through the clerk's office.

The Court also denied the Government's request for a rehearing of the decision in the rice millers' case, ordering impounded processing taxes returned.

The announcement said the order for release of the funds already had been signed.

Rev. I. N. Denny says: "I have found nothing in the past 20 years that can take the place of Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills. They are a sure relief for my headache."

Sufferers from Headache, Neuralgia, Toothache, Backache, Sciatica, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Neuritis, Muscular Pains, Periodic Pains, write that they have used Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills with better results than they had even hoped for.

Countless American homes would think more than think of keeping house without Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills than without flour or sugar. Keep a package in your medicine cabinet and save yourself needless suffering. At Drug Stores—25c and $1.00

DR. MILES' ANTI-PAIN PILLS

IT'S IN THE BASKET

by ALAN MAVER

Luisetti High Basket Scorer On Coast Teams

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20—UP—Angelo "Hank" Luisetti, sharpshooting forward for the Stanford basketball team, led Pacific Coast scorers with 49 points, a check-up revealed today.

Scoring sprees in week-end games gave Luisetti a nine point lead over Hupp, U. S. C., and a ten-point lead over Ball of UCLA, who dropped to third place in the rating with 42.

Other high scorers of the Conference were Turner, Stanford, 32, Carlisle, California, 29; Freese, U. C. L. A. 23; Stoefen, Stanford, 23; Anderson, USC, 19, and Appleby, USC, 17.

Telephone Toll Changes Denied By Commission

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20—UP—The application of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. and the Southern California Telephone Co. for changes in their rate structures today were denied by the State Railroad Commission.

In hearings conducted in San Francisco and Los Angeles last week, evidence was submitted that the new schedules, presented by the communications corporations as "equalizing long distance telephone costs" actually increased the shorter distance calls.

San Jose, Dixon and San Rafael protested against the changes, saying the proposed rates would make a call between these communities and San Francisco cost five cents more than at present.

Calls beyond 75 miles would have been reduced and in some cases calls to points over 200 miles distant would have been reduced as much as 20 per cent.

Baby Clipper On Way To Islands

ALAMEDA AIRPORT, Jan. 20—UP—En route to the Hawaiian Islands for use in inter-island air service, a Sikorsky amphibian plane landed here today, completing a transcontinental flight from the eastern factory.

The plane will make the remainder of its trip by boat, being dismantled and packed for shipment here.

The amphibian is similar in design to the "baby clipper" shipped to the island several months ago.

The ship was accompanied as far as Los Angeles by Brent Balchen, famed transport pilot.

Offers Deluge Woman Seeking Departed Beauty

SARATOGA, Cal., Jan. 20—UPJ Letters offering to accept her offer to place her life in the hands of a reputable physician "for experimental purposes to regain my lost attractiveness," have been received from all over the country, Aimee Lamar, former beautiful clothes model in Los Angeles said today.

Her beauty faded because of worry over her mother's illness and death and she has been reduced to housework to make a living. She said today she had not decided which offer to accept.

Wiffey Cox Is Open Play Champ

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 20.—UP—Wiffey Cox, former Brooklyn star now doing professional duty at Bethesda, Md., defeated Wild Bill Melhorn of Louisville, Ky., today in their 18 hole playoff for first prize money in the $3,000 Sacramento open golf tournament.

Cox came home with a 74, two over par, while Melhorn floundered in with a 77. Both were far from the form displayed in the closing rounds of regular play Sunday, when they stormed in with sub-par figures to finish with 286 aggregates for the 72 hole event.

Makes Plea For Needy Veterans

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20—UP—A plea that partially disabled World War veterans receiving small monthly compensation be permitted to obtain security wage jobs on PWA projects was made to State Administrator Frank Y. McLaughlin today by Jack Cassidy, head of the Veterans' Placement Bureau of the National Re-employment Service.

Under present regulations, veterans have been barred from receiving aid from either the relief administration or the PWA because they have received monthly compensations for World War injuries.

Boxing Tourney Entries Large

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20—UP—Two hundred and eleven California amateur boxers had filed applications today for participation in the Pacific Association junior boxing championships, western testing ground for national and Olympic tryouts.

Officials of the tournament estimated that approximately 250 entries would be received before elimination rounds begin Monday, January 27, in Civic auditorium.

New lists received today came from University of San Francisco, the Park Club, American Legion Post of El Cerrito, Olympic Club, Twin Peaks Parlor Native Sons, Kennedy Club of Richmond, Menlo Park Ramblers and San Jose State college.

Fruit Growers Okay AAA Pact

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20—UP—A new proposed marketing agreement for the shipping of California deciduous fruits, except apples, has been forwarded to Washington with a request for an early hearing, E. L. Markell, chairman of the AAA Pacific Region Marketing Committee, announced today.

Purpose of the agreement, Markell said, is to control the supply of fruits to markets outside the state to prevent shortages or gluts.

Fruits involved include fresh Bartlett pears, peaches, plums, cherries, apricots and winter pears.

The agreement involves 12,000 growers, farming 235,000 acres.

Have The Driver Call or take your Cleaning to BLACK'S
1301 Macdonald Ave. Telephone Richmond 728

PRODUCE FIVE, CLOTHIERS IN CAGE VICTORIES

Coming up fast in the last five minutes of play the Johnson Clothier basketball team last night downed the Produce outfit 34-32 and moved back onto the second rung of the City League ladder. Most of the credit went to the two ace forwards of the Johnson team, Swede Smersfelt and Ken Alexander, who scored 13 points each.

The yellow-clad Produce team grabbed an early lead and held it for most of the first half. It was not until the last few minutes of the second quarter that the Clothiers could gain an upper hand, due mostly to the shooting of Smersfelt. At half time the Johnsons led 21-17.

Y. M. I. WINS

In the preliminary game the Y. M. I. outfit found it necessary to go into an extra period to defeat the Woolfs Jeweler squad 50 to 48. Led by Don Randall the Jewelers were in front of the Y. M. I. boys most of the game by a small margin. When the final gun sounded the count was knotted at 40-40. Taking the top-off for the start of the extra quarter Randall put his team out in front with a brilliant field goal. However, this lead was short lived for three quick buckets by Starke and Kenny put the Y. M. I. team back in the lead, never to be headed.

Randall was by far the outstanding player on the floor. Shooting at all angles he seemed unable to miss the basket and left the court with 23 points to his credit. Wes Owens and Jim Kenny lead the Y. M. I. scoring with 16 and 12 respectively.

FIRST GAME

Y. M. I. (50)
Owens	16
Bianchi	4
Joe Kenny	5
Jim Kenny	12
Machetta	1
Starke	10
C. Corr	2
J. Corr	0
WOLFFS (43)
Randall	22
Lindsteadt	6
Carson	2
George	2
Anderson	10
SECOND GAME
JOHNSONS (34)
Smersfeldt	13
Alexander	13
McPherson	3
Kong	1
Casey	0
Anderson	2
Ball	0
McLaughlin	2
PRODUCE (32)
Gillan	5
Sinibaldi	6
Kislingbury	7
Baldwin	0
J. Williams	6
B. Williams	4
Nelson	3

FATAL LABOR RIOT

VERA CRUZ, Mexico, Jan. 20.—Two were killed and eight wounded today in a free-for-all fight between police and stevedores at Villa Cardel. The police commandant and the secretary of the labor union were killed. Six of the fighters were wounded. Two babies in arms were wounded by gunfire. The trouble arose over a long-smouldering labor feud.

Before The Battle

CHARLEY RETZLAFF, gentleman farmer of Leonard, N. D., as he trained in Chicago for his bout with Joe Louis, heavyweight boxing contender of Detroit. Retzlaf, whom sports writers agreed packed a punch failed to display it in his fight with the Brown Bomber, lasting only one minute and 25 seconds.

Administrative Costs For WPA To Be Reduced

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20—UP—Further methods of alleviating acute condition in the California relief program will be taken under consideration Thursday when State WPA officials from 12 districts meet here to discuss further administrative costs decreases.

Frank Y. McLaughlin, state administrator, in calling the meeting, indicated the directors will set as the minimum reduction $150,000 per month in expenses.

McLaughlin issued the call for the conference following receipt of notification from Harry L. Hopkins [illegible] director, that California's allotment for administrative purposes during February will be reduced to $325,000, as compared with $500,000 for January.

If administrative cost slashes new anticipated are approved, McLaughlin estimated that overhead expenses for conducting the WPA program in California will be reduced from 4.7 per cent to 2.7 of the total amount expended.

ANN HEWITT TO BE QUIZZED ON THURSDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20—UP—Ann Cooper Hewitt, 21-year-old heiress will go before Municipal Judge Sylvain J. Lazarus probably Thursday in unusual court proceedings to determine whether her mother and three others must face criminal prosecution in connection with the sterilization of the girl, her attorney, Russell P. Tyler, said today.

Miss Hewitt and two nurses who attended her will appear to answer questions in connection with charges made by the girl January 6, in a $500,000 damage suit, that she was tricked into a sterilization operation in a plot to rob her of her inheritance from her father, Peter Cooper Hewitt, wealthy inventor.

Miss Cooper's suit named her mother, the much-married Mrs. Maryon Cooper Hewitt McCarter, Drs. Samuel G. Boyd and Tilton E. Tilman, and Mrs. Mary S. C. Scally, psychologist, who pronounced the girl a "moron" prior to the operation.

Judge Lazarus will determine whether criminal prosecution should be instituted against any or all of the defendants in Ann's damage suit.

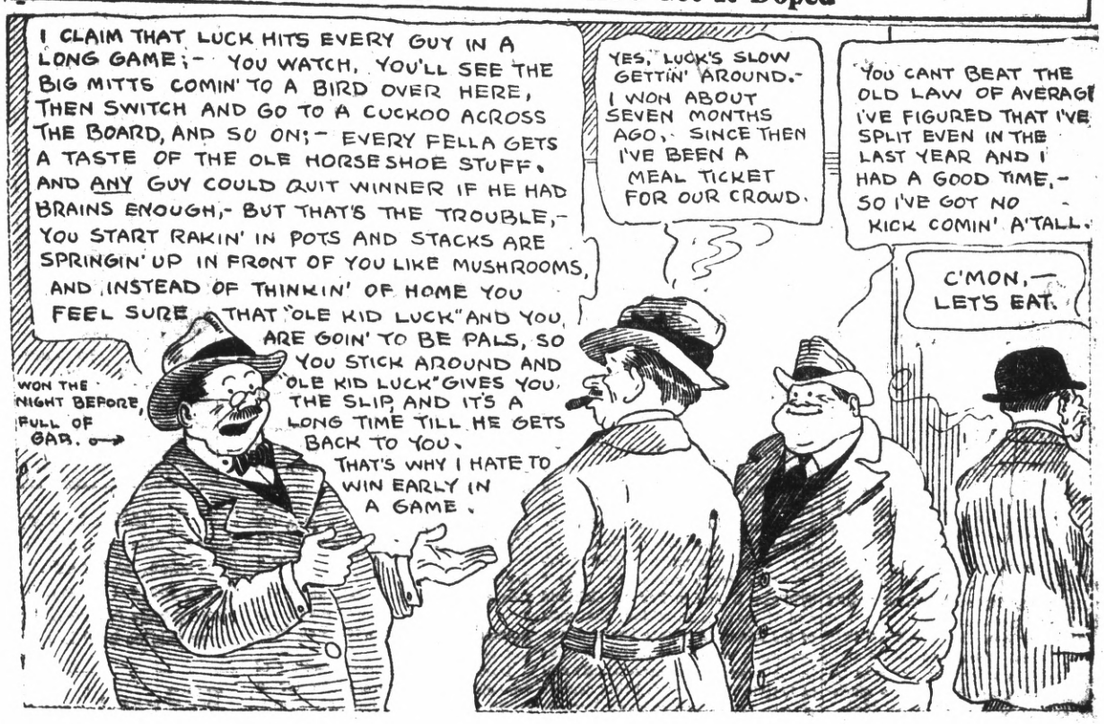

Walter Mails Is Speaker At Club

An interesting, and humorous talk, on baseball was heard yesterday when the Richmond Breakfast Club held its meeting at Hotel Carquinez. Walter Mails was the speaker and musical numbers were presentenced by F. C. Bibbins and Emil Esola. R. S. Crose was chairman of the day.

Dinty Doyle, publicity man for a well known orchestra, will be the speaker next meeting.

M. J. Welding Co.
222 Macdonald Avenue
Telephone Richmond 2007
Body-Radiator-Fender Work
Welding, Acetylene & Electric, Portable Machines & Brazing of all Kinds
PRICES RIGHT

"THAT LITTLE GAME" — He's Got It Doped

JOE JINKS

By Vic

S. F. SCHOOL PUPILS ARE IMPERILLED

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20.—Before the startled gaze of passing school children, Don Hamilton, 37, late today shot down his wife, Mrs. Grace Hamilton, 33, then turned the gun on himself in what police say was a suicide attempt.

At an emergency hospital it was believed that Mrs. Hamilton would recover. Hamilton was in a more serious condition. One of three bullets he fired at his head fractured his skull and another creased his head.

One of two shots fired by Hamilton, as he sat in his parked automobile, may have been intended for his wife's sister, Mrs. Sue Franklin, 1318 Page street, who was with Mrs. Hamilton as she approached Hamilton's parked car. That was Mrs. Franklin's suspicion at least.

RAMBLING NOTE

Hamilton, before going on his shooting spree wrote a rambling note, after fortifying himself with half a pint of whisky, in which he accused his wife of "two-timing him," by "entertaining men at the flat," and in which he also directed that their ashes be "scattered to the four winds" from the bay bridge span.

Hamilton, it was believed, was enraged after his wife early yesterday had had him cited for a second time for alleged failure to provide for his wife, their son, Byron, 4, and the wife's two children by a former marriage, Odell, 13 and Glena, 9.

LEFT HUSBAND

Last Thursday, following a series of quarrels, Mrs. Hamilton left the flat at 121 Pierce street, where she had lived with her husband and children, and went to the Page street address. The landlady at the Page street address, Mrs. K. Leona Eriksen, said "a man helped to pack her things."

The street scene, punctuated by shots, stilled the laughter and chatter of pupils from the nearby Andrew Jackson school. It occurred shortly afternoon.

WIFE IS AMAZED

"I don't know why he did it," said the wounded wife at the hospital. "If it had been just me I wouldn't care so much. But the children—"

NOBODY UNDERSELLS
SHAW
IF HE KNOWS IT
U. S. TIRES Macdonald at 23rd

RECORD-HERALD FOR RESULTS
TRY A CLASSIFIED IN THE

Two Die In Plane Crash

AL BACON, Fresno flier, who, with his companion, Jack Schneider, was the first to reach the wrecked four-passenger cabin plane after it crashed into a hillside at the peak of Pacheco Pass, killing Bud Talbot, 42, and Roscoe Howard, 40, Fresno businessmen.

EL CERRITO NEWS

Wm. E. McDOWELL AGREEABLY SURPRISED

William E. McDowell of Santa Fe avenue was agreeably surprised last week when a number of his friends dropped in at his home to help him celebrate his birthday, and came, like the Greeks, bearing gifts.

Among those who came to wish him many more were Mr. and Mrs. T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lord, Mrs. Ethel Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Callahan, Mrs. Foster Cole, Mrs. Edith Leitch, Mrs. Lily Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Waddle

RHENEHAN NEW HEAD OF IMPROVEMENT CLUB

Michael Rhenehan will head Berkeley Park Improvement Club, this year taking the place of Dr. E. A. Coe who had been acting as president for the past year. Rhenehan was elected at a meeting held recently at the home of the Robert Brittons in Berkeley Park. The other new officers elected to serve for this year are J. LaSalle, secretary, and John Holmes, treasurer.

ITEMS OF LOCAL AND SOCIAL INTEREST

Mrs. Ida Richter of 643 Everett street will leave for Honolulu on the Malolo on February 8. She goes to Hawaii to visit her parents, who live at Lihue, Ka uai. She expects to return to El Cerrito sometime in April.

* * *

Mrs. Harry Kister, Mrs. W. Sambles, Mrs. A. McCarty and Mrs. Lillian Crane attended the Dewey Auxiliary in Richmond Friday evening and assisted in entertaining the Post at a supper after the session.

* * *

Mrs. Buck Green of Patterson and her mother, Mrs. Hoetter of Berkeley, were guests in the Otto Wellman home on Thursday of last week.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Hannon, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Walters, Mrs. Otto Wellman and Lawrence Hoeffer spent a day last week with Miss Beatrice Wellman at Sunshine Camp. Miss Wellman's health is much improved since being at Sunshine and it is believed that she will soon be able to return to her home here.

* * *

Deputy District Attorney Harold Jacoby and Mrs. Jacoby have moved back to Harold's old stamping ground in Berkeley Park. They are now at home to their friends at 384 Coventry Road where they have taken a cottage while building their own home near there.

* * *

Mrs. Blake McNeil will entertain at a whist at her home, 6107 Fairmont avenue, on Wednesday evening of this week, under the auspices of the Auxiliary to the Louis Hagan Post. Games begin at 8 P. M.

* * *

Mrs. Hazel Allinio of San Pablo avenue was hostess on Friday to the members of the Amici Club at luncheon and bridge. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Mary Norville, Mrs. Lucille Hough and Mrs. Allinio.

* * *

On Saturday evening of this week the ladies of the M. E. Church will put on a food sale at the Quality Market, and on the evening of February 7 at 6:30 o'clock they will stage a demonstration dinner at the church to which the public is invited.

* * *

The Fairmont Parent-Teacher afternoon whist will be held at the PTA room at the school this afternoon with Mrs. Mary Norville as chairman in charge. It is anticipated that this party will be well attended.

* * *

Mrs. Elsie Thompson of Colusa avenue who has been seriously ill for the past several weeks is reported to be convalescing at the home of her sister, Mrs. Katherine Hartneck in Berkeley Park.

* * *

William G. Hillengass left Saturday evening for Camp De Sabla after a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hillengass of Pomona street.

* * *

Miss May Maynard and Mr. J. Kennedy of Berkeley Park Boulevard, took in a dinner dance at the home of friends in San Jose Saturday evening.

* * *

John Holmes has been appointed deputy county clerk to register voters in Berkeley Park this year.

BEER! — BEER! — BEER!
DIRECT FROM THE KEG. NO COILS USED
100 GALLONS ON TAP AT ALL TIMES
THE CALIFORNIA
1716 Macdonald Ave. GEORGE RUSSELL, Prop. Tel. Rich. 1147
SANDWICHES LUNCHES FINEST WINES

Two Will Face Liquor Charges

Two persons arrested by State Board of Equalization officers in raids on San Pablo resorts Sunday morning, will appear before Justice of the Peace L. F. Grover in San Pablo this morning on charges of violating state liquor laws.

Dora Lewis was arrested at Dutch's Inn for allegedly selling hard liquor with only a beer and wine license and Angelo Francheshi was taken into custody at Angelo's beer garden on a similar charge. Both are free on $200 bail each.

Aged Richmond Woman Is Hurt

Mrs. Delia Pargmann, of 115 Fifth street, was treated at a local hospital yesterday afternoon for severe injuries sustained in a fall down a flight of steps at her home.

The woman is 71 years of age. She sustained head and arm injuries that necessitated treatment by Dr. Kaho Daily. She will remain at the hospital for several days.

Police were called by neighbors and a Wilson and Kratzer ambulance was summoned to remove the aged woman to the hospital.

Automotive Service
GAS And ELECTRIC WELDING
PUIM BROTHERS
2325 Macdonald Avenue
Auto Repairing and Welding Works — Gas and Electric Portable Welding Machines

PAY RATE IS SET FOR HELP AT CITY HALL

On a motion made by Councilman J. R. Beck, seconded by W. F. Huber the Council of El Cerrito at its meeting Monday night passed a resolution setting the rate of pay for any additional office help in the city hall at $3.50 per 7-hour day.

The claim of Yvonne Stinnett who has been serving as deputy city treasurer during the illness of Deputy Mary Curtin for $5.00 per day, was held up because the appointment had not been confirmed by the council and the rate of pay was higher than that of Miss Curtain who receives $90 per month

NO ACTION TAKEN

No action was taken by the Council on the recommendation of Councilman W. F. Huber that the fees collected by the treasurer's and clerk's office be turned into the city treasury.

Huber stated the fees amounted to between $25 and $40 monthly.

TOLD HOW

In response to a communication from Lillian Chase, of the Richmond Annex, asking for part of the insurance business of the city, the Council instructed City Clerk Margaret O'Connell to notify Miss Chase that the insurance business was placed through the El Cerrito Insurance Men's Association.

NOT ENOUGH MONEY

Street Commissioner W. F. Huber reported that he had inspected Barrett avenue and while the entire street needed resurfacing he would have only enough money at the present time to do some patch work.

OFFER LAID ASIDE

Offer of George Friend to dedicate a street right of way along Havenscourt from Terrace Drive to Arlington boulevard was laid aside for future action.

STREET SIGNS UP

Erection of 800 new streets signs had been completed under a WPA project but grading project was lagging on account of the storms, Street Commissioner W. F. Huber reported.

SHOULD SLEEP NOW

On the recommendation of Fire Commissioner Louis Navallier the Council ordered 4 mattresses and some bedding for the firemen's quarter to cost between $60 and $65.

TO FORWARD RESOLUTION

Certified copies of the resolution empowering the mayor and city clerk to enter into a contract with Division of State Highways for the maintenance of San Pablo avenue and the new bridge highway were ordered sent to the state office.

Huber stated that the copies had to be on file before he could put in a claim of $290 for sweeping San Pablo avenue for six months; also the city would have to request an allowance of $100 for repairing of San Pablo avenue as some spots needed repair at the present time and more would develop later.

REZONING HEARING SET

A resolution calling for a public hearing on re-zoning of Bottini property west of the Santa Fe tracks between Blake and Hill street from commercial to industrial on Monday, February 17 at 8:30 p. m. was passed by the council.

SUGGESTION DROPPED

Suggestion of Councilman W. F. Huber that the Council meet every Monday night as formerly instead of two times a month as at present was dropped when Councilman Louis Navallier pointed out that the council could hold adjourned meetings when business required.

NEW SEWER PROMISED

In answer to the complaint of E. Gundry, presented by Councilman J. R. Beck, that the open storm sewer across the Santa Fe tracks at Cutting boulevard allowed the water to run under his house and in to his garage, Street Commissioner Huber replied that he would see that a new sewer was installed within the next month.

The next meeting of the Council will be held Monday February 3.

Last Rites For E. Richardson To Be Held Today

Last rites will be conducted this morning from the Wilson and Kratzer chapel at 10:30 for the late Everett Richardson, 58, of 125 South Eighth street, who died at a peninsula hospital Sunday.

Rev. Roy L. Ruth of San Francisco, former pastor of the West Side First Methodist church and Rev. H. F. Doran of Wesley M. E. Church will officiate at the services here, while Rev. James Starkes will be in charge of graveside services at Belmont Memorial Park cemetery at Fresno on Wednesday at 1 o'clock.

Deceased had been a railroad man for the past 28 years and was employed recently by the Santa Fe. He had lived here for the past 19 years and was a member of the local lodge of Elks and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

Left to mourn are his widow, Mrs. Effie C. Richardson; his mother, Mrs. Josephine Richardson of Richmond; three sisters, Mrs. Lulu Plummer of West Virginia, Mrs. Ada Pruitt of North Carolina and Mrs. Effie Kissenger of Ohio; and three brothers, S. G. Richardson of Ohio and Ed and Frank of West Virginia.

Richmond Man Is Injured In Crash

Robert Meehan, of Richmond, sustained cuts and bruises on the head and face Sunday when the parked car in which he was sitting with F. M. Marnell, 51, also of Richmond was struck by a car driven by Gilbert Gordon, 111 Nicholl avenue. The accident happened at McBryde and San Pablo avenues. Both cars were badly damaged.

Meehan was treated at a local hospital and was then sent home.

Binkley Last Rites Will Be Held Here Today

George C. Binkley, 50, of 350 South Twenty-fourth street, will be buried at Sunset View cemetery following funeral services for the First Baptist church this afternoon at 2 P. M. Rev. K. B. Wallace will officiate at the rites and Harbor Lodge of Masons will have charge of the graveside services.

Deceased was a native of Nashville and had worked here for the past 18 years as a carpenter. He was a member of Harbor Masonic Lodge and the First Baptist Church. He served as a deacon of the church.

Binkley is survived by his widow, Mrs. Lena L. Binkley; a daughter, Mrs. Audra Hiatt of Florida; a son, Roslyn Binkley of Florida, and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. George Bracey, Mrs. John Bingley, Mrs. Ed Tafley, Charles and James Binkley, all of Tennessee; Mrs. Irene Lloyd of Ohio and David Bingley of Kansas.

Kamb Funeral Here Wednesday

Rev. V. G. Ogran of the Berkeley Lutheran church, will officiate at funeral services to be held from the Wilson and Kratzer chapel tomorrow at 2 o'clock for the late Carl Oscar Kamb, 2514 Gaynor avenue, who died Sunday at a local hospital following a short illness.

A native of Finland, Kamb had lived here for the past 20 years. He was employed as a machinist at the Standard Sanitary company.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Kamb; two daughters, Miss Hazel Kamb and Mrs. Helen Johnson, Richmond; three sons, Carl R. and Edwin of Richmond and Walter Kamb of Berkeley and six grandchildren. He was the father of the late Eilene Kamb.

Scout Officials To Inspect Camp

George Miller, of the local Scout executive board and Executive Donald F. Seaman will go to Crockett today to inspect the site for the Boy Scout camporee to be held there in May.

Crockett recently invited the district to hold its two-day camp there this summer.

Short Session Held By Council

But a small amount of routine business was transacted by the Council at its meeting last evening.

One hundred and forty-six cases were handled by Police Judge C. A. Odell last month, and $673 in fines collected.

The auditor's report showed balance in the treasury of $61,501.30. For the month of December, the city tax collector reported collection of $155,287.20.

A letter of thanks from the Eagles drum corps was received. The date of the proposed carnival has been set for the week of May 26 to June 2nd.

Death Claims Crockett Gi

Death yesterday claimed Lillian Macchi, 22, of Crockett, passed away at a San Franc hospital.

Deceased was born in Croc where she had a large circ friends who will mourn her She had been employed in the ing department of the C & H refinery.

Serviving are the mother, Caroline Ogle, a step-father, Fred Ogle, and a sister Mrs. Magnani, all of Crockett; al grandmother, Mrs. Beatrice C of Italy. She was a member Rose church and of Crolona U. A. O. D.

Funeral arrangements are ing at the Ryan Funeral Ho

Bridge Franchis Extended A Y

MARTINEZ, Jan. 20.—Exte of one year of a franchise Richmond-San Rafael Ferry Transportation company for struction of a bridge between tra Costa and Marin counties granted by the board of su sors today.

Attorney A. B. Tinning app before the supervisors as at for the ferry company, owner of the franchise, grante vember 8, 1928.

It was stated the company yet ready to proceed with con tion and asked extension for a The franchise was extende to February 15, 1937. The franchise expires February 15

He Came to See Life—
He Stayed to Find Love

ONE CHRISTMAS EVE
by Ruth Louise Ayers

FROM the varicolored threads of many lives, the author draws together a pattern of romance and courage to fashion a serial novel which will hold you from the first to the final sentence. "One Christmas Eve" is a fiesta of fiction you'll never forget. It'll be published, in daily chapters, beginning

Friday January 24th

RICHMOND RECORD-HERALD

BACK HOME AGAIN By Dodd

SAN FRANCISCO
Whether Your Visit is for Business or Pleasure
● It's ultra-smart to make the MAURICE HOTEL your city address. Rooms are exquisitely furnished, all with bath and shower. Near shops, theatres and business center, yet away from the noise of traffic.
$2.50 ONE PERSON $3.50 TWO PERSONS
$4.00 TWIN BEDS
FREE GARAGE TO TRANSIENT GUESTS
Hotel MAURICE
761 Post Street
L. DON DENNIS, Resident Manager
Fireproof Building

RADIO

7 A. M. to 8 A. M.

KPO—Good Morning; Vaughn de Leath; Sketch "Dan Harding's Wife"; Doc Whipple; Three Shades of Blue.
KGO—Sam Moore; Art Tatum; Edward MacHugh, Finance; Herman and Banta.
KFRC—Rise and Shine; Stocks; Rise and Shine.
KYA—Musical Clock.
KSFO—Cuckoo Club; Oregon Cowboy; Cowboy Revue.
KJBS—Alarm Clock Club; Clock.
KRE—Breakfast Melodies.

8 A. M. to 9 A. M.

KLX—Records; New York Stocks; Covered Wagon Jubilee.
KPO—Johnny O'Brien; Jerry Brannon; Your Child; Piano.
KGO—U. S. Marine Band;
KFRC—Records; Romance of Helen Trent; Just Plain Bill; Studio; Bess Bye.
KYA—Christian Science Reading; Studio; Concert.
KSFO—Sunrise Revue; Jack Hall.
KJBS—Records; Concert.
KRE—Melodies; Records.

9 A. M. to 10 A. M.

KLX—The Shopping List; Playing the Song Market; Records.
KPO—Kitchen Sink Songs; Honeyboy and Sassafras; Merry Madcapa.
KGO—Simpson Boys; Merry Macs; Emil Polak.
KFRC—Voice of Experience; Betty Crocker; Mary Marlin; Five Star Jones.
KYA—Studio; Women's Program; Viennese Romances.
KSFO—Prayer; Studio.
KJBS—Dance; Salon.
KRE—Prayer: Concert.

10 A. M. to 11 A. M.

KLX—Oakland Police Dept. Safety program; Records; Stocks; Weather; News Flashes; International Kitchen, Gladys Cronkhite, director.
KPO—Martha Meade; Agriculture; Ida Bailey Allen; Morton Bowe; Studio.
KGO—You Name It; Dobbsie.
KFRC—Geo. Hall's Orchestra; Masters; Morning Hostess.
KYA—Parade; Home and Style Forum; Health Talk.
KSFO—Studio; Helen Harvey.
KJBS—Studio; Organ; Dance; Popular Tunes.
KRE—Health; Waltz Time; Records.

11 A. M. to 12 NOON

KLX—Health School of the Air; Dance Rhythms; Records; Musical Scrapbook.
KPO—NBC Music Guild; Rhythm Octet.
KGO—Dobbsie; Farm and Home.
KFRC—Ted Malone; Happy Hollow; American School of the Air.
KYA—Organ; Music Makers; Scrapbook.
KSFO—Helen Harvey; Strolling Tom; Stuart Hamblen.
KJBS—Popular Tunes; Health; Slices of Life; Salon.
KRE—Tango; Pop Review.

12 NOON to 1 P. M.

KLX—Siren; Dance Music Anita and Orosco; Paths of Memory.
KPO—Sketch; Ma Perkins; Vic and Sade; The O'Neills.
KGO—Farm and Home; Agriculture; Edna Fischer; King's Jesters.
KFRC—Studio; Oleanders; Tito Guizar; Vivian Della Chiesa;
KYA—Studio; Concert.
KSFO—Stuart Hamblen; Dance Russian Ensemble.
KJBS—Popular Song Hits; Dance;
KRE—Jack Bennett.

1 P. M. to 2 P. M.

KLX—Records; Martha Lee; Concert.
KPO—Betty and Bob; Studio; Sketch; General Federation of Women's Clubs.
KGO—Helen Webster; Library of Congress Chamber music.
KFRC—Cleveland String Quartet; Studio; Stocks; University of the Air; Lyric Trio.
KYA—Revue; Barker Frivolities;
KSFO—George Taylor's Frolic; Stocks; Pontrelli's Orchestra.
KJBS—Stocks; Records; Dance.
KRE—Cloister Echoes; Records.

2 P. M. to 3 P. M.

KLX—Lost and Found; Records; Stocks; Records.
KPO—Health; Hugo Martin's Orchestra;
KGO—Chamber Music; Larry Larsen; Benny Goodman's Orchestra
KFRC—Al Trace and Orchestra; Jimmy Farrell; Records; The Goldbergs; Gertrude Berg.
KYA—Frivolities; Studio; Matinee.
KSFO—Eddie Albright; Jean Kent Studio.
KJBS—Better Business Bureau; Records; Studio; Song Favorites.
KRE—Records.

3 P. M. to 4 P. M.

KLX—Helen Wegman Parmelee; Records.
KPO—Woman's Magazine.
KGO—Southernaires; Harry Kogen Mickey Gillette; Musical Moments; Lee Gordon; Charioteers;
KFRC—Feminine Fancies; Minute Melodies; Piano; Understanding Opera.
KYA—Musical Matinee; Symphony Sketches.
KSFO—Rev. Fuller; Bill Brokaw.
KJBS—Studio; Musical Styles; Studio; Dance.
KRE—Tea Dance.

4 P. M. to 5 P. M.

KLX—Records; Helen Wegman Parmelee; Tonic Tunes; Health Talk.
KPO—Easy Aces; Studio; Jack Meakin; Rush Hughes.
KGO—Hal Totten; Norsemen; Console Capers; Mario Cozzi.
KFRC—Howard Neumiller; Eleanu Moneak ensemble.
KYA—Symphony Sketches; Studio; Parade.
KSFO—Hometown Sketches; Dance Time; Keep Smiling.
KJBS—Home Folks; Aubrey Loux; Mystery; Rumba Orchestra.
KRE—Opera Echoes; Salon.

5 P. M. to 6 P. M.

KLX—Worthwhile Junior Citizens; Covered Wagon Jubilee.
KPO—Beaux Arts Trio; Behind the Footlights; Visiting with Captain Dobbs; Harry Stanton;
KGO—Styles; Pair of Pianos; Ted White; Jack Armstrong.
KFRC—Harmonettes; Organ; Lawrence Tibbett.
KYA—Cocktail Time; Little Orphan Annie.
KSFO—Oklahoma Ramblers; Studio Kearney Walton's Orchestra; Studio.
KJBS—Studio; Dance.
KRE—All Star Revue; Chestnuts;

6 P. M. to 7 P. M.

KYA—Cy Trobbe.
KPO—N. T. G. and his Girls; Jumbo Fire Chief show.
KGO—Crosscuts from Log of Day; S. F. Government talk; Air Adventures of Jimmy Allen.
KFRC—Yankee Trade Trails; Gaylord Carter; Opportunity Parade.
KSFO—Italian News; Sports; Inventors' Congress speaker; Five Star Final.
KLX—Arion trio.
KRE—Concert; Organ.

7 P. M. to 8 P. M.

KYA—Ernie Smith's Sports Page; Arioso Ensemble; Ask Mr. Jones
KPO—Studio Party; Fidler's Hollywood Gossip; Nihi Editor.
KGO—Popeye the Sailor; Comedy; Argentine Trio; Wilson's Orchestra.
KFRC—Drums; March of Time; Gold Rush Days.
KLX—Studio; Melody Palette; Emma Fitch; Voyage of Discovery.
KSFO—Elmer Goes Holywood; Hawaiianettes; In-Laws; Grier's Orchestra.
KRE—Music of the Masters; Records.

8 P. M. to 9 P. M.

KYA—News; President's Ball talk Pendarvis' Orchestra; Fiesta.
KPO—Amos n Andy; Lum and Abner; Reisman's Orchestra.
KGO—State Chamber of Commerce Gasparre's Orchestra; Rine's Orchestra.
KFRC—Myrt and Marge; Nelson's Orchestra; Caravan.
KSFO—News and Views by Dr. Coffee; Lucca's Concert Orchestra; Allen Berry; Melody over Manhattan.
KLX—Gospel Hymns; Nevada Nightherders.
KRE—Earl lectures.

9 P. M. to 10 P. M.

KYA—Fietsa; Seeing Is Believing; Darrell Donnell.
KPO—Death Valley Days; Crime Clues.
KGO—Shandor; Coakley's Orchestra; Little's Orchestra.
KFRC—Waring's Pennsylvanians; Osborne's Orchestra.
KSFO—Studio; Stafford's Orchestra; Crockett Family.
KLX—Nevada Night Herders; Studio; Music Masters.
KRE—Dance music.

10 P. M. to 11 P. M.

KYA—Wrestling Matches.
KPO—Studio; Ben Bernie; Grier's Orchestra.
KGO—Pendarvis' Orchestra; Del Courtney's Orchestra.
KFRC—Headlines; Bittick's Orchestra; Lee's Orchestra; Youngs Orchestra.
KSFO—Crockett Family; Gems of Haawii; Pontrelli's Orchestra.
KLX—Records; Music Castles; Alice Blue Reflections.
KJBS—Music Salon; Voice of Counsel; Music Salon.
KRE—Records.

11 P. M. to MIDNIGHT

KYA—Bicycle Races; Organ.
KPO—Williams' Orchestra.
KGO—Organ concert
KFRC—Dorsey's Orchestra; Dawson's Orchestra; Hite's Orchestra
KSFO—Pontrelli's Orchestra; Studio.
KJBS—Dance Time; Studio; Dance
KRE—Records.

AFTER MIDNIGHT

KSFO—Midnight Vagabonds.
KJBS—Midnight Club; Owl program.
KRE—Variety program.

MAY ROBSON IN COMEDY-DRAMA AT FOX TODAY

A real motion picture treat is promised at the Fox theater today where May Robson is screening in "The Kids And A Queen" the comedy-drama in which she is starred as "the richest woman in the world." The program heads a great show for Bank Night.

In "Three Kids and a Queen" Miss Robson is seen in a characterization appealing and human. As Mary Jane Baxter she is presented as a bitter and imperious old maid crabbed and yet filled with an acid quality of delightful humor. It is a runaway accident which rendered her unconscious and opens the way for the happiest period of her life, and she "comes to" in the East Side barber shop of a basement flat. Here her great adventure in happiness leads to more exciting adventures in which she is kidnaped by gangsters.

The cast supporting Miss Robson includes Henry Armetta, Frankie Darro, Charlotte Henry and Hedda Hopper.

"Mutiny On The Bounty" record-breaking screen treat of all time will open at the Fox theater tomorrow. Clark Gable, Charles Laughton and Franchot Tone head the big cast of thousands appearing in the film.

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY GO ROUND

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20—Vitriolic and bitter have been some of the debates privately staged among the justices of the Supreme Court these days, but during them one man at least always remains calm.

He is George Sutherland, slender grey-beared, scholarly, silent.

Sutherland has a most agreeable manner. He is mild and charming. During the private debates he is always calm and eventempered. He does not get irritated as does Butler; he does not sulk as does McReynolds. But to try to change Sutherland's set conviction on any economic subject is like baying at the moon.

Sutherland is 75 years old. And his law, his economic reasoning, are as old or older than he.

He spent most of his life in an age that is no more—and age of fenceless prairies, free land, and limitless natural resources.

Born in England, Sutherland's parents brought him to Utah, where he became a budding young lawyer, aligned himself with the Mormon-Republican machine and in 1901 was elected to Congress, later to the Senate.

HARDING'S FRIEND

In the Senate Sutherland was known chiefly for his long and dreary dissertations on the Constitution and his friendship with Warren Gamaliel Harding. The future President, perhaps because he rarely listened, or because he himself knew little of such things, considered the scholarly Utahan a very erudite man.

At any rate, Sutherland was defeated by Senator King and left the Senate in 1917. In 1920, he spent several months advising Harding on his campaign. Harding appointed him to the Supreme Court in 1922.

On the Court, Sutherland has established a record in opposing state legislation to control business and regulate labor conditions.

It was Sutherland who wrote the opinion outlawing the minimum wage. It was Sutherland who wrote the opinion making unconstitutional the child-labor law. It was Sutherland who, in the Baltimore street railway case of 1930, ruled that a fare fixed by the state permitting the company a 6 1-4 per cent return was "confiscatory."

Finally it was Sutherland who wrote the majority opinions upsetting Oklahoma's attempt to control her ice industry, and again checking the right of a state to use its taxing power to promote co-operative farming.

Justice Sutherland has hypochondriacal tendencies and is constantly talking about medicine and his ailments. Two or three years ago he talked about resigning. But like some of his other anti-New Deal colleagues, Sutherland now is determined to stand by as the protector of the Constitution to the very end.

ON THE JUMP

A few days later his Court colleagues had riddled the AAA, Justice Harlan F. Stone, one-time dean of the Columbia Law School, met one of his former students, now a Government lawyer.

"How are you getting on, John?" inquired Stone.

"Pretty Good, Mr. Justice. I was the legal division of the NRA last year, then I transferred to the AAA, and now I am in the legal division of the Securities and Exchange Commission."

Stone smiled, said:

"I see. Keeping one jump ahead of us, eh?"

NOTE—Some New Dealers fear the SEC will go the way of other New Deal agencies, be declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court.

LOUDER AND FUNNIER

Secretary Henry Wallace is one of the most careful speech writers in the Administration. But as he himself ruefully relates, he has his lapses. This is the story Henry tells on himself:

Rushed with other matters up to the last minute before delivering a recent speech, Wallace failed to go over the final draft of his manuscript, which he had turned over to an assistant to prepare.

Appearing before the audience, Wallace was a little hesitant at first, but gradually warmed to the work. Finally he became so fervid that without realizing it, he read aloud the following typed notations:

"At this point tell audience a funny story and get them in good humor."

Only when a roar of laughter burst on him did he stop, and look to see what he had said. Then he, too, joined in the joke on himself.

Hollywood Film Shop

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 20—UP—To Frank Forest, Hollywood seems "just a bit frightening."

This latest importation to the operatic colony of the films sang in the principal opera houses of Europe, appeared before the Royal Family of Norway, won the acclaim of Franz Lehar, Viennese composer—yet feels "like a perfect novice" in the movie capital, he confesses.

After only a few days in Hollywood, he's wondering how it's going to feel to sing before a dispassionate microphone. And he's frankly awed by what he terms "the tremendous possibilities of the movies."

"When I think I must sing to something that appears so small and unfeeling as a microphone, and yet realize that through it I shall be singing to an audience thousands of times larger than any audience I've seen before, I get sort of weak in the knees," he explains.

"And I feel, too, that I'm up against the biggest thing of my career. Something a lot more exciting than, say, a debut at La Scala or the Metropolitan.

"I suppose I have a species of stage fright. But they tell me I'll get over it as soon as I'm used to the place. I suppose, too, that I will. It's always like this at an important debut. It is probably good for any singer."

Born in St. Paul, Minn., Forest studied for a while in New York, then went to Italy, where he stayed for 10 years and, as Franko Foresta, sang his way to fame throughout Europe.

He was signed by La Scala to sing the leading role in a new opera, "Koenig Kinder" but was so dissatisfied when he saw the score that he asked for his release.

Then he met Lehar, who wanted him to sing the tenor role at the premier performance of his latest operetta, "Guiditta." Later he came back home for his American debut at the Chicago Opera and scored in "Traviata." Then Paramount signed him, and he already is scheduled for two pictures, Lehar's "The Count of Luxembourg" and later "Tsar and Musician."

He will spend the time before starting work in getting over being frightened by Hollywood.

NEW YORK INSIDE OUT

By DON O'MALLEY

NEW YORK, Jan. 20 —La-deez and Gentlemen! Step right up and read the Broadway Barometer, Index of the Na-shun's Business!

If gloom and despair have settled on your weary brows, take heart from the annual report of the Broadway Association, which has just been sent out to cheer up the populace. The Association informs us that the recent holiday trading topped that of last year by a long way. More than a million dollars is being spent to remodel and improve business structures on Broadway from 42nd Street way up to 100th Street.

Automobile row in the Columbus Circle neighborhood is coming into its own again. Some of the leading dealers, who departed because of the depression, have returned to their old stands, and many others have shelled out considerable dough to beautify their down-at-the-heel salesrooms.

Retail stores generally are chortling with pleasure over increased sales. The theatrical rejuvenation has been visible for some time, and the night spots and restaurants—praise be to Repeal—are again jingling the cash registers joyfully.

It all means, La-deez and Gentlemen, that as Broadway goes, so goes the Na-shun! Step right up and sing Hallelujah!

• • •

CHEAP—They've been celebrating the Russian New Year about town. Up at George Djamgaroff's Last 75th Street penthouse, and down at Prince Serge Obolensky's Maisonette Russe, it was celebrated in the gay fashion you'd expect. But the most original whoopee was that indulged in by Mrs. Olga Ferdena, up in the Bronx.

For one year Mrs. Ferdena, married and the mother of three children, has looked with admiration upon the handsome figure of Conrad Beedy, the neighborhood cop. Her admiration mounted with the months. Flushed with the holiday spirit, Mrs. Ferdena decided she'd give expression to her feelings. She ran outside and kissed the cop.

Patrolman Beedy was embarrassed. He was so embarrassed, in fact, that he went and arrested Mrs. Ferdena for disorderly conduct. Magistrate Burke was firm. He sentenced the lady to a $2 fine or two days in jail. Mrs. Ferdena beamed.

"I'll be glad to pay it," she said. "It was worth it."

ANN DECIDES AGAINST JAIL CELL STUDIO

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20—UP—A jail cell for a studio, with paints and brushes scattered here and there, almost came to pass today for Ann Kitterman, charged with traffic law violations—but not quite.

Miss Kitterman had a very busy day. First she faced Municipal Judge Daniel S. O'Brien in San Francisco, who ordered her to pay a $15 fine and suspended sentence for two days. When the State Motor Vehicle Department asked that her license be suspended for 30 days the judge set aside his suspended sentence, granted the department's request and added the $15 fine to the punishment.

Miss Kitterman waxed indignant. "You can't do that," she told the judge. "Besides I've got to get over to Oakland to appear on speeding charges."

"Oh I can't, eh," was the judge's reaction. "You show up here with that $15, or else—"

Miss Kitterman decided she would look over the county jail and see whether she would spend three days there in lieu of paying the $15.

"Couldn't I bring my things over and paint?" she asked Matron Gussie Kennedy.

"Listen, I don't think you like our jail. Pay that fine, won't you, as a favor to me?" said the matron.

Late in the day Miss Kitterman parted with $14 when she appeared before Police Judge Chris B. Fox in Oakland, who rebuked her for failing to appear in court after a warrant had been issued.

Strom Death Is Held As Natural

A verdict of death from natural causes was returned last night by a coroner's jury investigating the death of J. P. Strom, local businessman, who was found dead in his rooms at the Elks club on the afternoon of January 11.

Heart trouble was given as the cause of death.

Coroner Dr. C. L. Abbott conducted the inquest which was held at the Wilson and Kratzer chapel.

C. O. D. Cleaners
Established 1909
SUITS O'COATS PLAIN DRESSES 75c
Cash And Carry
2409 Macdonald Phone 683

GARBAGE COLLECTED
Phone Richmond 358
Perasso Bros.
33 FIFTEENTH ST.

Phone RICHMOND 584
FOX WEST COAST THEATRES
RICHMOND
ALL SEATS 25¢ EXCEPT LOGES
TONIGHT AT 8:00 P. M., OUR BIGGEST 1936 BANK NIGHTS WITH 4 BIG BANK ACCOUNTS!
$350 BANK NIGHT
To be Given Away by Four Bank Register Drawings
... ONE FOR $150 JACK POT ... A $100 JACK POT
... AND TWO FOR $50 JACK POT ACCOUNTS
—AND ON OUR SCREEN TODAY
The first lady of the screen in a picture that will top "LADY FOR A DAY" for laughs, excitement and downright fun.
MAY ROBSON in "THREE KIDS and a QUEEN"
CHARLOTTE HENRY • BILLY BURFUD
FRANKIE DARRO • HENRY ARMETTA
WILLIAM BENEDICT
Tomorrow THE RECORD-BREAKING HIT OF ALL TIME!
MUTINY ON THE BOUNTY
CLARK GABLE
CHARLES LAUGHTON
FRANCHOT TONE
The exotic South Seas maiden, who charms Clark Gable, is the most exciting beauty he ever held in his arms
MATINEE AT 1:15 P. M., FIRST NIGHT SHOW 6:00 P. M. PLEASE COME EARLY FOR BEST SEATS

Richmond Theater
Today and Wednesday
JACK HOLT in "AWAKENING OF JIM BURKE" with Florence Rice
Kathleen Burke
also Zasu Pitts-James Gleason in "HOT TIP"
Salem China Tuesday — Bank Night Wednesday

Industrial Brokerage Company
LOANS $10 TO $60
QUICKLY AND CONFIDENTIALLY
NO SECURITY—NO INDORSER
404 American Trust Bldg.
314 TENTH STREET
Phone Richmond 417
FOR IMMEDIATE SERVICE

MURINE FOR YOUR EYES
QUICKLY Relieves TIRED REDDENED EYES
RECOMMENDED FOR 40 YEARS

Santa Fe
SANTA FE TRAIL SYSTEM
REAL Economy PLUS RECOGNIZED Quality
THE RECENT coordination of the facilities of the SANTA FE TRAIL SYSTEM, motor buses, with those of the SANTA FE RAILWAY, brings to the traveler the bed rock economy of bus transportation—plus the SANTA FE'S recognized quality of management. ★ To illustrate the extreme low cost of a journey in modern, roomy SANTA FE buses, we quote a few EXAMPLES OF LOW RATES EAST
CHICAGO $29.50
ST. LOUIS 27.50
NEW ORLEANS 27.50
NEW YORK $42.25
PHILADELPHIA 41.40
DETROIT 32.50
SIMILAR LOW FARES TO MANY OTHER POINTS
FRED HARVEY MEALS FOR OUR PATRONS
This famous dining service, linked with the SANTA FE rail travel for 60 years, now becomes available to Santa Fe Trail System bus patrons—a striking example of the results of this union of Quality and Economy. These meals, served in attractive Fred Harvey Dining Stations during restful meal stops, are generous, of uniform excellence, and are priced to save you money: Breakfast 25¢, 35¢ and 40¢; Luncheon 35¢, 40¢ and 45¢; Dinner 40¢, 45¢ and 55¢.
FOR ECONOMY PLUS QUALITY, TRAVEL SANTA FE TRAIL
SANTA FE TRAIL SYSTEM
775 Market Street, Phone EXbrook 3121, San Francisco ★ 601 Market Street and Ferry Bldg., Phone SUtter 7600, San Francisco ★ 425 Fourteenth Street, Phone HOlliday 5600, Oakland ★ 432 Thirteenth St., Phone HUmbolt 9780, Oakland, or any Santa Fe Railway Agent

SILVER MOTH

By MILDRED SNOW GLEASON
(AUTHOR OF "CASTLE OF DOOM")

CHAPTER XXXIV

KURT stared at Sonia.

"So you are one of his agents," he murmured. "And it was to you that he gave my password. You gave it to Dalson and Grey. I might have guessed!"

"Kurt," she said impulsively, "why won't you definitely join the service?"

"I want to be under my own orders and not a subordinate. I've been my own chief too long to change."

"Oh, Kurt!"

He took her hand and kissed it.

"Now then! Tell me, Sonia, why you are here and what part I really played in coming to Egypt?"

HER voice was low as she answered.

"As you know, Egypt has been having a very difficult time to protect herself against the drug traffic. She is only one of several countries. For a long time it has been suspected that the important drug traffic in the world is handled chiefly by one organization, so clever that none but the small fry belonging to it have ever been caught and they are entirely ignorant of their chief's identity or headquarters.

"Our government was asked for help. I've been on the job for some time posing as a member of the gang myself running all the risks of being caught by the police. But not until a few months ago, did I discover that the headquarters were here in Egypt——"

"Where," Kurt interrupted "do I come in?"

"I wanted your help but obviously, I couldn't let the others know why, so I told Bruce and Grey that, because of the murders within the gang, I was afraid to smuggle the new lot of dope assigned to me and suggested that we get someone to do it whom the double-crosser might not suspect. I suggested that Bruce approach you the Silver Moth without telling you the exact nature of the job."

"And because I might not be interested Seven BX was the name you used to entice me." Kurt mused slowly. "Then Bruce must be working with you on this?"

"More subtle than that." Sonia laughed quietly. "Seven BX is known only to me and Grey for what he is. The gang believe him to be one of the biggest criminals in America."

"You say he's known to Grey?"

Sonia nodded, and smiled. "Grey and I are colleagues. He, too, is an agent."

"What an idiot I've been not to have understood!"

"No." She shook her head. "It is merely that we've played our parts well."

KURT rose, went to the opening in the tent, and looked outside. The others were still making a pretense of eating supper. He came back and began to pace up and down. Finally, he stopped in front of Sonia.

"It amounts to this, then," he said. "You believe that one of the persons here to-night is the head of this international dope gang, and we know that one of them is a murderer. Our job is to catch both of them."

"It may be the same person."

Kurt shook his head.

"No. I do not think so. What you have told me has explained a little problem in my mind. I think that, by to-morrow I'll be able to hand them both over to you. One at least. And now, let's go out and see if there is anything left to eat."

Everyone turned as Sonia and Kurt emerged from the tent. Kurt, once more perfectly self-possessed, studied the faces from half-closed eyes, and what he saw—fear, doubt—pleased him.

"Jolly crowd," he murmured, and helped himself to food and drink. "And by the way," he added lightly, "if anyone has anything to confess, now is the moment. Lighter sentence if you give state's evidence, you know."

"Exactly what do you mean?" John Larker asked sharply.

"Mean?" Kurt pretended to be surprised. "I should think my meaning was perfectly clear. Everyone of you has something to confess, you know."

"I don't find your joke very amusing, Hastings," Dalson said quietly.

Kurt shrugged. "I wasn't joking, but it doesn't matter. Let's go to bed. The night may bring wisdom."

HE EMPTIED his glass of wine, and stood up. Almost unwillingly, the others followed his example. As they said good night, Sonia stepped close to him.

"You have put yourself in greater danger, Kurt," she whispered.

"Have I? Well it doesn't matter."

In his tent, Tobermann and Dalson wished him a good night with nervous good fellowship. Kurt returned the wish with a sarcastic smile. Then, removing only his shoes and coat, he lay down on his cot. The other two also kept their clothes on. Tobermann put out the light.

As soon as the tent was in darkness, Kurt tensed. He was terribly tired, but fought desperately against sleep. For an eternity, it seemed to him, he lay there.

Then, suddenly, he heard one of the other cots creak. He sat up cautiously.

Clubs Lodges Society

MISS KELLAM HONORED BY P. O. WORKERS

Miss Lucy Kellam, retired post office employee was guest of honor at a banquet held Saturday evening at a local cafe. The postal employees, both clerks and carriers, were present to honor and bid Godspeed to one who had endeared herself to all with whom she came in contact.

She was presented with a radio, a gift from the postal employees as an emblem of the esteem in which she was held by all who have been associated with her in the postal service. Presentation was made by Edward Seger. Short talks were made by all present.

Among the guests present was E. J. Derepentigney, retired local mail carrier. Others present were Miss Lucy Kellam, guest of honor, Miss Irene Powers, Miss Viola Treanor, Miss Anna Shaw, Elmer Smith, O. R. Barsten, James A. Knight, Jesse Moore, Ira Moore, Frank Stallard, Charles Badcock, Edward Seger, Alvin Fowler, Harold Hunt, Edward Balsiger, E. Dennis, Perry Lasater, Rudolph Ghianda and Albert Zeller.

Albert Zeller led in community singing, and Miss Anna Shaw was chairman of the day.

At the close of the banquet every one joined in wishing Miss Kellam many happy and prosperous years in which to enjoy her well earned rest.

*

W. O. M. LODGE WILL HAVE BUSY MEETING

Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor will be chairman of the evening when Richmond Lodge of Women of the Moose meets Wednesday evening at the W. O. W. hall.

All members have been urged to attend the session which will be followed by a whist. Proceeds will be used to buy materials for sunsuits which the lodge will make for Sunshine Camp.

Mrs. Theresa Larson will preside and asks all officers to turn in rituals.

Sapphire

MARGIE TAYLOR displays the 320-carat white star sapphire, Star of Artaban, recently found in the Ceylon, India pits and brought to New York. It weighed about 1,000 carats before it was cut and is now valued at about $35,000. It is considered the largest perfect star sapphire ever received here.

LEONE ORR, MR. R. HEANS ARE MARRIED

Miss Ellen Leone Orr, popular Richmond girl and Robert F. Heans of Berkeley, were united in marriage at a ceremony held Sunday at the home of the bridegroom's parents in Berkeley.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, E. L. Orr, while Miss Isabelle Tease was her only attendant.

Berkeley Kent was best man for Heans.

The wedding was followed by an informal reception at the eHans' home on Capistrano street.

Miss Orr graduated from Richmond high school and belongs to several local organizations. She is an accomplished musician and has for some time been organist for Wesley church. At present she is employed in a local beauty shop. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Orr of San Pablo.

The young couple plan to take an apartment in Richmond at Fourteenth and Barrett.

*

MRS. MALIK IS SPEAKER FOR LOCAL CLUB

An interesting program meeting was enjoyed yesterday when the Richmond Club convened at its Nevin avenue clubhouse with Mrs. Beulah Tiller presiding.

During the business meeting plans were made for a bridge and whist party to be held Wednesday at 2 o'clock with Mrs. C. C. Marley in charge. The club plans to hold card parties the fourth Wednesday of each month until the summer vacation season starts.

Mrs. Mary Rogers entertained with vocal selections, accompanied by Mrs. Irma St. John. Mrs. Billie Brown read Kipling's "If."

Mrs. Ben Malik was the speaker of the day and she gave a most interesting account of her recent trip to Europe.

The session was concluded with refreshments served by Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. S. S. Ripley and Mrs. William Patterson.

*

MISS BOUCHER, H. WESTMAN ARE UNITED

Miss Yvette Boucher and Harry Westman, popular Richmond young people were united in marriage at a ceremony held at St. Edmund's church Saturday evening, Rev. Ten Broeck officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, A. C. Boucher, and was attended by Mrs. Ruth Fenix Harrison as matron of honor. Edward Westman served as best man for his brother.

Both are graduates of the local high school. The bride attended the University of California. She made her home with her father and young sister at 656 Twenty-second street.

Westman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Westman, No. 6 Lobos street. He is employed by the Standard Oil.

Whats Doing Here Today

WILSON P. T. A. business meeting at school at 2:15 this afternoon.

* * *

PERES P. T. A. program meeting at school at 1:30.

* * *

ST. EDMUND'S GUILD session at church at 2 o'clock.

* * *

NYSTROM P. T. A. Founder's Day program at school at 2 P. M.

* * *

AREME CLUB dessert luncheon at home of Mrs. Anna Rogers.

* * *

V. F. W. POST initiation of candidates at meeting tonight.

*

ELKS CLUB program meeting at clubrooms tonight.

Children's Colds Yield quicker to double action of VICKS VAPORUB STAINLESS now, if you prefer

LOUIS E. DAVIS BAIL BONDS
Day or Night Service
Telephones: Templebar 2708, Thornwall 4127
EL CERRITO, California

Pay Cash FOR THAT NEW CAR
Automobile Finance Department
Special rates on new Fords, Plymouths . . . Chevrolets
MECHANICS BANK RICHMOND

WE DO DAMP WASH
16 LBS. FOR 49c
5c for each additional lb.
Try our family dry wash service. Flat pieces ironed. Wearing apparel dried, lb. 8c
Out of this service we will finish shirts for only, additional 12c
Richmond Steam Laundry
526 Ripley Phone 612

Charges are Moderate

It is well to remember that a beautiful mortuary does not mean high prices, as this firm proves. With all the refinements and comforts to be found here, charges are never higher than the smallest incomes can easily afford. By including everything in one plainly marked price, we have made it possible for every family to make an appropriate selection without financial hardship.

WILSON & KRATZER, Mortuary
Bissell at Seventh Street Phone Richmond 113
RICHMOND
Lady Attendant. Ambulance Service

BUCKHORN BUFFET AND LIQUOR STORE
2233 Macdonald Ave.
AMERICAN STRAIGHT WHISKIES
(Prices include all taxes)
Valley Falls pt. 60c
Green Top, " 60c
Old Rambler " 65c
Old Guide " 70c
Mint Springs " 93c
Mellwood " $1.08
Bottoms Up " $1.10
King of Kentucky " $1.00
You can bring your entire family to eat at our restaurant where Richmond's better food is served.
Beautifully fitted cocktail lounge in conjunction for the ladies.
WINES
Muscatel, Port, Sherry,
Angelica, Gal. $1.40
Sauterne, Gal. 75c
Zinfandel, Gal. 65c

Briton's Family Reunion

AN INTERESTING group that gathered in the home of Sir John Simon, British Home Secretary, in London recently. Sir John is shown with his son John Gilbert Simon, his daughters, Mrs. Edwards, left and Mrs. Bickford-Smith. The baby Sir John holds is his son's daughter. Other grandchildren are, John Edwards, and Jarl, Mary and John Bickford-Smith.

Thank You

Richmond Record-Herald,
Richmond, California.
Dear Sir:

The Richmond Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary No. 10, take this means of thanking you, for your co-operation with us, in all the publicity you have given us.

Thanking you, we are,
Very truly yours,
PEARL OUTMAN, President.
ALICE G. WILES, Secretary.

*

CLYDE COOK IS HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

The fiftieth birthday of Clyde Cook, well known Richmond man, was celebrated recently at a dinner party held at the Cook home at 1350 Wright avenue.

Mr. Cook was presented with numerous gifts from his many friends and acquaintances.

Those present at the dinner included Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Swearingen and daughter, Katherine, Mrs. Alice Camp, Ramon Lilly, J. C. Lester and Mrs. Lillie Smith, all of Richmond, and Mrs. Frances McCoy of San Francisco.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. V. McGrath and sons, Rudolph and Sammy, Mr. and Mrs. Alec Weaver and granddaughter, Miss Aubrey Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bengler.

*

ECLIPSE LODGE TO PAY VISIT TO RODEO SOON

A fraternal visit to Rodeo lodge next Monday night was planned last evening when Eclipse Lodge of Odd Fellows held its meeting. Grand Master C. R. Taylor will pay his official visit to the Rodeo lodge. Members of the local lodge will meet at the hall at 7:30 to make the trip in a body.

Committees for the year were named by A. W. Hartunz, the noble grand, at last night's meeting. These committees are:

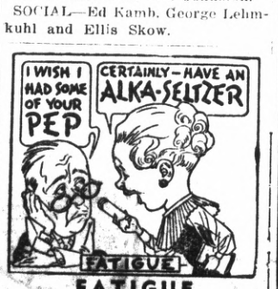

FINANCE — Ray Berk, Gast Thornquist and Wilbur Jones.

ROOM—G. T. Stanley, Ed Johnston and Gust Thornquist.

CLUBROOM—J. L. Brown and W. T. Campbell.

DRILLMASTER—Ed Johnston.

SOCIAL—Ed Kamb, George Lehmkuhl and Ellis Skow.

FATIGUE
Are you tired? No time to rest? Then try a refreshing, sparkling drink of Alka-Seltzer.
Take Alka-Seltzer for Colds, Acid Indigestion, Headache, Neuralgia, Stomach Gas, Muscular, Rheumatic and Sciatic Pains. Pleasant, effective, economical, non-laxative, non-habit forming—does not depress the heart.
At your drug store in 30c and 60c packages. By the drink at the soda fountain.
BE WISE—ALKALIZE

TRY A CLASSIFIED IN THE RECORD-HERALD FOR RESULTS

'OLD TIMERS' ARE HONORED BY ONETAH

"Old Timers Night" was held last evening by Onetah Tribe of Red Men at a meeting held in the clubrooms.

At that time the birthdays of Frank Smith, Henry Trautvetter, Sr., Faruk Marchetti and Dan Nozilia were observed. Talks were heard from the honored guests who were presented with gifts. C. L. Sutliff headed the refreshment committee.

Frank J. Smith presided over the business meeting and announcement that the ways and means committee will meet next Monday night at 7:30.

*

HARBOR LODGE ENTERTAINED WITH DANCE

Members of Harbor Lodge last evening were entertained at an old-fashioned barn dance held at the Masonic hall.

The hall was decorated in keeping with the affair. Favors were distributed to all the guests in attendance. Dr. L. R. Sears was master of ceremonies. Old-fashioned dancing was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Herbert L. Hunn, the master, announced that next meeting night—February 3—the lodge will have a stated business meeting. There will be a prominent speaker present. Ina Rasmussen heads the committee in charge.

*

Crawford Last Rites Pending

Funeral services are pending at the Wilson and Kratzer chapel for Thomas B. Crawford, 72, retired local machinist who died at a Martinez hospital Sunday.

Deceased resided at 6038 Wenk avenue, Richmond Annex and had lived in this area for the past 20 years.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Jane Crawford and two brothers, Nathan of Williams, Calif., and Edward of San Francisco.

Mass Marketing Hearing Opens At University

BERKELEY, Jan. 20—UP — A hearing on mass marketing by chain stores was opened at Giannini Hall, University of California, today by the State assembly's interim committee on agricultural marketing.

Witnesses representing both chain stores and independent grocers were heard. The hearing will be continued tomorrow.

The committee will hear testimony on other marketing problems Wednesday, particularly with regard to the differential between producer and consumer prices.

Thursday, prune marketing problems will be discussed. Livestock marketing will be considered Friday.

The committee is composed of John Phillip, Riverside county, chairman; Clarence R. Walker, Imperial county; James Litt, Orange county; Frank G. Martin, Los Angeles county; James Thorpe, San Joaquin county; T. H. DeLap, Contra Costa county and James D. Garibaldi, Modesto.

Similar hearings have been held in Santa Cruz and Sacramento.

Mrs. F. Maciel Richmond Woman Taken By Death

MARTINEZ, Jan. 20.—Last rites will be conducted from St. Catherine's Church here Wednesday morning at 9:30 under the direction of a local funeral chapel, for the late Mrs. Frances Maciel, 62, of Richmond, who died at a local hospital today.

Interment will be in the Catholic cemetery at Concord.

Deceased had been ill for the past three years. She had lived in Richmond at the home of a son, Raymond J. Camezon, of 2127 Burbeck avenue, Richmond for the past several years.

In addition to her son and two grandchildren living in Richmond, deceased also leaves a son living at Manteca and a daughter at Soledad.

Master Craft Cleaners
WINTER SPECIAL
3 Suits, Dresses, Plain Coats, Blankets Mix 'Em Up $1.00 CASH AND CARRY
Skirts, Pants, Jackets, Sweaters .. 25c
OUR WINTER SPECIAL ON ECONOMY SERVICE
Corner San Pablo and Waldo Aves.
EL CERRITO, CALIF.

ARE you receiving your value in cleaning?
ARE you satisfied with old methods?
ARE you in the market for a real treat?
If you are try Richmond's newest and neatest establishment.
No Iron Marks No Shrinkage
No Shine No Disappointments
KEEP-U-NEET CLEANERS
339 Sixth St., Lucille Cook, Prop. Rich. 334
(Formerly with Cleanatorium Cleaners)

City's Health Is Excellent, Report Shows

(Continued from page 1)

ber of births by 6, or 275 births for 1935 against 281 for 1934, of which 144 were males and 131 females.

"In the manner of deaths, heart disease, as always, was the principal cause, leading with 34 cases. Accidental causes were next, numbering 22, of which 13 were caused by automobiles, against 12 for the previous year.

"There were 32 cases of scarlet fever the past year against 13 the previous year and two cases of diphtheria. The small scarlet fever epidemic we had seems to be under control as we have only two cases in quarantine at present.

"In the non-quarantine group, we had 27 cases of measles, against 165 the year before and 26 cases of chicken-pox, against 24 cases the previous year.

"We have again had a very fortunate year for public health with a very small record for epidemics of any kind and no deaths from any contagious disease. Our immunization work still continues to be a leader in our work. Last year we immunized 346 children for diphtheria and vaccinated 120 and also 36 cases for typhoid."

*

Former Richmond Resident Called

Friends yesterday learned of the death of Jesse J. Mello, Sr., former local Standard Oil company worker, at Santa Cruz last Saturday. Funeral services will be held at Santa Cruz, where the deceased was born 66 years ago, today.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Minnie Mello; two daughters Mrs. George Bonds and Mrs. Hazel Rose; a son, Jesse, Jr., and a grand-daughter, Marjorie Rose.

*

DIVIDENDS ARE INCOME

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20—UP—In a decision of far-reaching import, the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals today ruled that stock dividends must be considered as income rather than capital investment so far as income tax returns are concerned.

*

RECLUSE SUICIDES

WATSONVILLE, Jan. 20—UP — James Nolan, 65-year-old Watsonville recluse, was found dead today at his ranch house near here, apparently a suicide. Nolan evidently had shot himself through the head with a shotgun, which was found near his body. Nolan, who lived alone, had no known survivors.

'CHRIST ANGEL' DEATH TO BE INVESTIGATED

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20—UP — Secrecy which Ella May Clemmons, "Christ Angel" of Chinatown and her husband, Hjalmar Groneman, sought before her mysterious death faced searching inquiry tonight by a county grand jury.

John R. Tyrrell, deputy district attorney in charge of the jury, said: "There are many odd circumstances in connection with this woman's death the grand jury may be able to clear up."

The move to investigate all angles of the strange case came after C. Ray Fritz, city manager of Alameda, across San Francisco bay, announced he would recommend to the Alameda county coroner that the body of the eccentric Mrs. Groneman be exhumed from its grave in Hayward.

"I believe a post-mortem should be performed to determine whether the causes of death were those set forth in her death certificate," Fritz said. The certificate gave the cause of her death as inflammation of the gall bladder and jaundice.

Dr. Paul Barron, Alameda city physician, commented that he was in "complete accord" with the recommendation. Barron once asked police investigation of Mrs. Groneman's death last September 19, only nine days after she married Groneman in a secret ceremony for which no regular marriage license was obtained.

Groneman was questioned, then released following discovery of his wife's death only last week. For months he had told friends of the strange benefactor of scores of Chinese that she still was alive. It was revealed during the questioning that he was sole heir to an estimated $50,000 estate and trust fund under a will made by his wife.

WHIST GAME—AT—SAN PABLO TOWN CLUB
Wednesday Evening, Jan. 22
Free clam chowder—Free dance
Games start at 8:30 P. M.
CASH PRIZES

HERE'S TO YOUR HEALTH
By Dr FRANK McCOY
AUTHOR OF "THE FAST WAY TO HEALTH"
All questions regarding Health and Diet will be answered. Large, stamped, self addressed envelope must be enclosed. Write on one side of paper only. Letters must not exceed 150 words. Address Dr. Frank McCoy, care of this paper.

CAUSES OF FLATULENCE

Flatulence, or excessive stomach and intestinal gas, is one of the symptoms very commonly found among those sick enough to consult a doctor. It is also a frequent symptom among those considering themselves in average good health, who are nevertheless inconvenienced occasionally by gas pressure following the use of a meal consisting of unwise mixtures of food.

Flatulence may accompany many of the disorders of the stomach and intestines and is a prominent symptom among patients with chronic indigestion, colitis, constipation, chronic appendicitis, etc. It may occur as a symptom in gall bladder disorders and proves annoying to the nervous patient suffering from "nervous indigestion." Mild disturbances of the digestive processes resulting from the use of rich foods or from the use of foods wholesome in themselves but incorrectly combined, often result in the formation of an excessive amount of gas, which proves troublesome to the patient. The thin, slender patient with prolapsus is likely to be made uncomfortable by gas which accumulates. Sleep disturbances such as dreams and nightmares likewise may be induced by the same symptom.

In those complaining principally of stomach gas, the most likely cause is air-swallowing. These patients have formed the habit of swallowing air unconsciously and their efforts to belch it up only causes additional air to enter the stomach. The hydrochloric acid of the stomach discourages the formation of gas in this organ to some extent, and when it is actually present it will usually be due either to air-swallowing or to the use of certain foods which do not agree with the patient. When the patient uses a food which previous experience has taught him will cause gastric discomfort, including gas pressure, there undoubtedly exists a strong expectancy that the former distress will repeat itself and this unconscious expectation of trouble helps the anticipated symptoms to appear. Self-suggestion of this type will have considerable power to bring about the discomfort feared.

In normal health, there is present at all times in the stomach and intestines, a small amount of gas; however, inasmuch as we are unaware of it, its presence is ignored. It is only when gas accumulates in an abnormal amount, that the patient is cognizant of its formation.

The common causes of flatulence are: Over-eating; the use of wrong food combinations; the use of foods which ferment easily because of their chemical composition such as onions, garlic, cooked cabbage and beans; the excessive use of starch and sugar; eating too rapidly without chewing the food long enough; and eating when tired or enervated.

Dietetic indiscretions are the principal cause of flatulence. Even after the patient corrects those habits or eating which are "not good" and substitutes for them those habits which are good, an immediate change for the better may not be apparent, although after following these good habits for several weeks, a gradual improvement will occur. It is not reasonable to suppose that one may eat unwisely for years and then by a simple change in diet, expect a cure overnight. At least a few weeks must elapse before the digestive juices will become better adjusted to each other, and before the excess bacteria in the intestine will diminish. These excess bacteria had, for a long time, the purpose of breaking up the food materials being used in too large an amount or being used in the wrong combinations. After living on a better diet for several weeks, the bacteria will decrease because they are no longer needed. It is often to cut down on the amount of starch consumed, as starchy foods usually cause the most fermentation.

TOMORROW'S ARTICLE: SYMPTOMS ASSOCIATED WITH FLATULENCE.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
(Red Nose)

Question: M. F. inquires: "What could cause a perpetually red nose? Although I never touch alcoholic beverages, my nose is a vivid red color."

Answer: The most common cause of a reddish discoloration of the nose is auto-intoxication resulting from the use of foods in incorrect combinations. If this is the cause in your case, you will benefit from learning how to use a correct diet.

OUR-OWN--DAILY--MAGAZINE--PAGE

YOUR GOOD HEALTH

Older Persons With Brain Psychoses Better Off Away From Family

By CLAUD NORTH CHRISMAN, M.D.

REFERENCE has already been made to the fact that some are faced by conditions of senility much sooner than others. We note this every day as some one is characterized as "carrying his years well" and another as "aging very fast."

Of course, circumstances and general physical conditions are much in control of the situation. Some of our most difficult cases are found when some one past middle age is forced to find a home in a family where he or she doesn't really belong.

DR. CHRISMAN

This is especially true if the odd one is a widowed mother or father, who must stand aside and see the younger folks managing their own lives in a way which doesn't always include the older ones. Very soon there are hurt feelings, aloofness, refusal to participate and downright melancholy. This may or may not be due to the actual situation, but to exaggerations on the part of age. Out of this condition of abnormal function the brain takes on all sorts of phases.

Some are merely disturbed and later genuinely confused. Some are forgetful and others keenly aware of more than we want them to know. Some are more than clever, and even downright tricky, being able to outwit their caretakers in a surprising way. In all of these types there is likely to be some definite glandular deficiency and the condition in the brain is only a part of the general debility.

No Real Illness

In the majority of cases, however, there will be no real illness, and in the minds of those in charge of the case no reason for calling a physician. In all too many of them the behavior is attributed to stubbornness, irritableness or to just plain meanness.

The problem is not how to name the trouble, but how to take care of it. Just as the successful management of our institutions calls for the special training of those in charge who can and do understand their charges, so do these cases in the homes need much study and sympathetic understanding.

While I could have the utmost sympathy for those whose families are disrupted and inconvenienced by the presence of an older person who is, to put it mildly, "difficult," I feel many of these cases could be managed, and even cured, by the proper handling. Many of the vagaries of these psychoses can be indulged without harm and many of their notions will be better humored than thwarted.

A common phase is that the patient thinks he is not where he is supposed to be. A good neighbor of mine dresses up her restless old mother nearly every day and takes her for a walk to some imaginary home by simply maneuvering her around to her own place again, where she is satisfied for another day or two.

Compulsory confinement in the mild psychoses is seldom successful. Recently, a family I know put up an ordinary wicket gate on their porch, just as they would to restrain a small child. At first sight of it, the old mother who was supposed to be kept in bounds by it, was highly indignant.

Specific Treatment Difficult

In spite of her age, she contrived a clever stunt of porch climbing and got away. No specific line of treatment for any of these cases can be laid down. Bodily habits must be kept as cleanly and as regular as possible, though this is often a difficult task. Much depends upon the general nourishment, and especially the blood supply to the brain.

Weak heart action or high blood pressure must be cared for by the usual remedies. Sleep is imperative, but if hypnotics or even mild sedatives are used they must be kept under careful regulation, and never left to the discretion of the patient.

I do not want to be unfeeling, but whenever any of these cases get to the point of breaking up the family life or of seriously limiting the opportunities of those in charge of them they should be placed in a rest home.

Strange as it may seem, "queer" folks often do better together, the routine, the special diet, the companionship seem even more to their liking. My own view is that it is not fair to the younger generation for a normal family life to be too much hindered by the presence of some one, however near, who would be as well off somewhere else.

Short Cuts

A teaspoon of vinegar beaten into boiled frosting when the flavoring is added will prevent it becoming brittle or breaking off when cut.

* * *

To rewind window shade spring simply insert the flat end of the roller between the tines of a kitchen fork and turn.

Profiles For Today

Senator Pittman Champions Silver

By TALBOT LAKE

THE Senatorial silver bloc has gained in stature with the elevation of Key Pittman, of Nevada, to the chairmanship of the Foreign Relations Committee. Pittman has undoubtedly been the leader in the fight to hold up silver prices, but before 1933 he had little to do with the foreign situation.

Characteristically enough, he has jumped right into his job with great energy, and in the comparatively short time he has held the new post he has familiarized himself with all the details. The President has a strong supporter in Pittman, and his efforts to get the Presidential Bill to a vote at an early date have been much appreciated, there is no doubt.

Although he has aroused considerable discussion with his fight for silver, Senator Pittman really is one of the more modest of our Congressmen. Years ago he owned a small telephone company in the Nevada desert, and those who know him best say he has changed very little since then, despite the call to bigger things. He has no startling eccentricities to excite the news hounds, dressing and talking conventionally, although he is known around Washington as a good mixer.

The Senator hailed originally from Vicksburg, and started out to be a lawyer in Seattle. The lure of the Alaskan gold fields attacked him, however, so he went up north and for two years played an important part on one end of a buck saw at Dawson. Perhaps it may be his failure to pan out much gold may have influenced Pittman to favor silver, but this, of course, is only in fun.

Once he got back to the States and settled in Nevada his career went forward quickly. He became a local politician, and in 1913 was first elected to Congress. He has been there ever since.

Wood Is Fireproofed

Firepreofed lumber, a dream for centuries, is at last a reality. This recent contribution of science which practically robs wood of its ability to burn and renders it instead an obstacle in the path of fire, is made known after a survey examination just completed by Underwriters' Laboratories authority on fire and accident devices.

SLEEVE CONTRAST

Copyright, 1936, by Fairchild

Silver lame cloth for a frock very slim in contrast with the voluminous fulness of the long sleeves and the back of the bodice.

Guide to Charm

Treating Cold Early Is Best Beauty Saver

By JACQUELINE HUNT

WHEN you have a cold do everything in your power to get rid of it at once. You can no longer blame colds on the weather. Sleet and snow no doubt encourage this commonest of winter ailments, but it is your own resistance, or rather lack of it, that does most of the mischief.

Since the steps taken to cure and prevent common colds are such excellent beauty, as well as health-building measures, we are going to discuss them at length today. First, if you get a cold!

I've told you how important it is to wash your eyes frequently with a warm antiseptic solution, and how the mouth and throat must be treated often. Unless it is a question of losing your job or something equally disastrous you should stay at home when you feel a cold coming on.

Go to bed if you can. If not, relax in a comfortable chair in a warm room free from drafts. Try to stay away from others so you will not spread the disease. Flush out your system by taking a laxative and go on a liquid diet of milk, soup, fruit juices, and cod liver oil. They are rich in vitamins A and D, which build resistance to disease. The light diet gives your system more of a chance to throw off its poisons.

MISS HUNT

If you follow the above suggestions — be sure to get plenty of rest—your cold should be under control within twenty-four hours. If not, you should ask your physician for suggestions. He can prescribe the best treatment.

And now for the preventative measures. Most of us felt well last summer. Nature did her best with fresh air, sunlight, and a diet containing lots of fresh fruits, vegetables, and dairy products. You can have those things even in the stormiest weather, but since they involve more effort on your part you are too apt to skimp on them. Let me remind you they not only help you resist colds and common ailments, but they also give you a fresher, clearer complexion, brighter eyes, and a more graceful, well-proportioned figure.

Outdoor exercise is an excellent resistance builder. In addition, it gives the skin a better chance to throw off its waste products and improves the circulation, so your skin will be clearer and firmer. If you are at business during the day you may find it difficult to fit the outdoor exercise into your schedule, but if you will walk at least a part of the way home at night, or you use part of your lunch hour for walking in the fresh air you will find other health problems tend to adjust themselves.

Worry and overwork are also enemies that lower your resistance and rob you of beauty. Make a sincere effort to adjust problems of living, get plenty of sleep, and build up your health through proper diet and exercise. You will be repaid in happiness and good looks.

Beauty Tips

QUESTION: "I am only eighteen, and too young to be worried about a double chin, but I seem to be getting one. I also have lines under my eyes. How can I get rid of the chin and lines? Also, can you tell me how to reduce a fleshy nose? —Anxious."

You had better watch your posture and your diet. Carry your head squarely on your shoulders, your back straight, and your shoulders comfortably back. Massage your neck daily and use witch-hazel or a mild astringent patted on smartly to keep the tissues firm. Take simple exercises like turning your head from side to side and dropping it backward as far as possible while you go through "gum chewing" motions. If you want to lose a few pounds I will be glad to send you my leaflet, "Slimming Safely" on receipt of a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Lines under your eyes may mean lack of sleep, or that you need glasses. Only plastic surgery can change the shape of your nose.

* * *

QUESTION: "Please tell me how to reduce the bust. The rest of my body is well-proportioned, but my bust is from 2 to 3 inches too large. —Mrs. Gus H."

There is no simple exercise that will reduce the bust. If you are a little overweight, restraint where sweets, pastries and breads are concerned may make some difference. Otherwise, the only thing you can do is to swim, play tennis, or take simple exercises that use the muscles of the arms, shoulders and chest. This may make the tissues firmer and the bust smaller; if not, all you can do is to stop worrying about the matter.

In Ivory Tone

Medieval drapery of ivory satin forms this hostess gown for Frances Drake, of the screen. Ropes of silver, with shimmering tassels of unusual size, add much to its rare elegance.

Square-toed Shoes Novel, But Are Winning Favor

By IRENE VAIL

New York — A little footnote, especially one on square-toed shoes may not be amiss. Granting they are startling, one must admit they are being favored for all manner of shoes. It appears from all the data available at this time that resort shoes are often square-toed, and that the race goes to novelty footwear for practically all occasions. There is confidence expressed in navy shoes from now on, and the prospect for beige shoes seems brighter than usual.

Twelve new hosiery shades now appear. "Burnt" shades and "Club Colors" represent the outstanding fashion themes. Tones with a glowing quality are highlighted in the "burnt" trio. These "burnt" shades express a new style movement in hosiery colors for resort wear and summer. They have been influenced by the chaudron or copper range in costumes and accessories. They are known as "Burnt Nude," "Burnt Ochre" and "Burnt Copper," and are suggested for wear with white, pastels, and the brilliant new shades.

That tie feeling will continue for sophisticated colors is indicated in the continued representation of darks, that include the navy identified as "Baltimore Blue," "Del Monte Wine," vintage shade, and a green with bronzy overtone to be known as "Pinehurst" green. The beiges and browns have a subtler and livelier quality. "Misty" is a beige with blush overtone that gives it a subtle character. It is complementary to colored shoes, such as the marine blue, oxblood, violet and blue, also the browns and black.

Does the idea of wearing pink gloves appeal to you? Pink gloves with a navy costume, I mean. One might wear them to good effect with black or a very, very dark shade; express a new style movement in hosiery colors for resort wear and summer. They have been influenced by the chaudron or copper range in costumes and accessories. They are known as "Burnt Nude," "Burnt Ochre" and "Burnt Copper," and are suggested for wear with white, pastels, and the brilliant new shades.

That tie feeling will continue for sophisticated colors is indicated in the continued representation of darks, that include the navy identified as "Baltimore Blue," "Del Monte Wine," vintage shade, and a green with bronzy overtone to be known as "Pinehurst" green. The beiges and browns have a subtler and livelier quality. "Misty" is a beige with blush overtone that gives it a subtle character. It is complementary to colored shoes, such as the marine blue, oxblood, violet and blue, also the browns and black.

Does the idea of wearing pink gloves appeal to you? Pink gloves with a navy costume, I mean. One might wear them to good effect with black or a very, very dark shade; express a new style movement in hosiery colors for resort wear and summer. They have been influenced by the chaudron or copper range in costumes and accessories. They are known as "Burnt Nude," "Burnt Ochre" and "Burnt Copper," and are suggested

Modes and Manners

QUESTION: "How should the groom and best-man be dressed for an informal afternoon wedding? —W. S."

ANSWER: The groom, best-man and ushers if any, all wear ordinary business suits of a dark material.

* * *

QUESTION: "If a lull in conversation should occur while I'm entertaining it makes me terribly nervous. I myself am a poor conversationalist. I'd like to be able to keep the ball rolling, so to speak. Can you offer any suggestions?—Mrs. H. J. K."

ANSWER: A person who is not glib at conversation can make herself more popular as a hostess by making a point of remembering things to talk about. She could keep a notebook in which to jot down certain incidents which she would like to remember. A good story or anecdote could also find its way into this book. As a rule, the mere act of writing things down is an aid to memory. In any case, she could refer to the book just before a party to give her something to talk about when conversation lags. Another resourceful move is to remember interesting or amusing stories told by friends. This makes it easy for a hostess to draw her friends into conversation by suggesting, as an example: "Martha, won't you tell us about the bus incident? It's a priceless story."

Dishes for Today

Tastier Food Needed Idea In Household

By JUDITH WILSON

WHETHER your New Year's resolutions were many or few, the most important one probably was that the new year would bring tastier dishes to your table. You need not depend on elaborate menus or expensive food to put your meals across, but new flavors are essential.

Any move to improve meals should start with luncheons. Lunches have a way of being made up of odds and ends of things left in the refrigerator or breadbox—bits of food that do not belong together and are appealing neither to the eye nor appetite.

But how about the menus given here. They are well balanced, easy to prepare, make use of left-overs, and at the same time are appetizing.

LUNCHEONS

Chicken-Noodle Soup
Crisp Wheat Wafers
Bacon-Potato Salad
Hot Cheese Biscuits
Maple-Nut Blanc Mange
Tea

Baked Onions with Cheese and Rice
Banana-Bran Muffins
Jellied Tomato Salad
Frozen Raisin Custard
Coffee Milk

Bacon-Potato Salad

Wash a small head of lettuce, drain, shred it fine and put in the refrigerator to chill. Peel four large or six medium sized boiled potatoes and cut into cubes. Add 1 onion, finely chopped and ½ pound bacon diced and fried until light brown. Season to taste with salt, pepper and mayonnaise made tart by the addition of 1 teaspoon or more vinegar. Toss together lightly with the shredded lettuce and garnish with 2 hard-cooked eggs, sliced, paprika and ½ cup cooked peas. Six generous servings.

Cheese Biscuits

Add grated cheese to your favorite recipe for baking powder biscuits before rolling and cutting; or roll and cut as usual, brush lightly with melted butter and sprinkle thickly with grated American cheese. Bake in a slower oven than usual until the biscuits are done and the cheese melted and light brown.

Baked Onions

Pare 6 large mild-flavored onions and parboil in salted water until tender. Make a sauce by melting 2 tablespoons butter and blending with 2 tablespoons flour, a dash of pepper and 1 cup milk. Cook until the sauce is smooth and add ¾ cup grated cheese. In a buttered baking dish arrange alternate layers of onions (broken apart), cooked rice, and the cheese sauce. Bake in a moderate oven 20 minutes to brown lightly and blend the flavors.

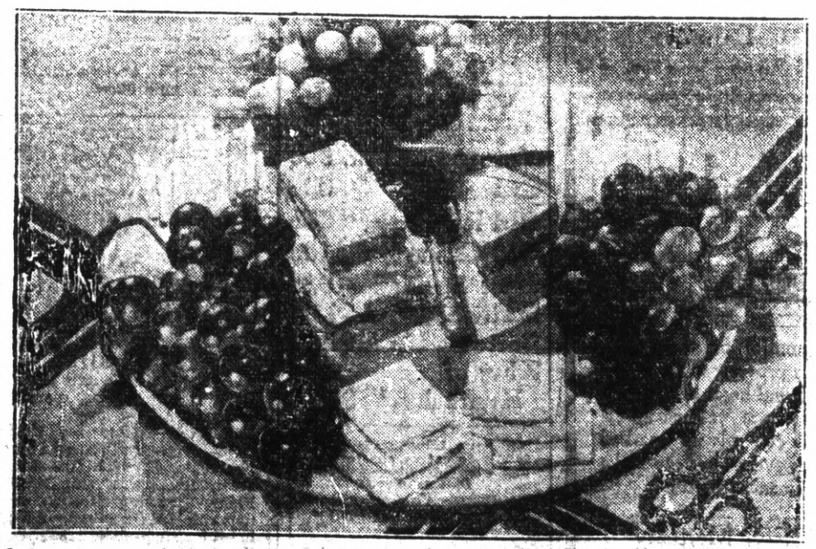

Lamb Chops

Lamb chops are delicious for a company luncheon, or for the family when served on a hot platter surrounded with nests of mashed potatoes filled with creamed or buttered peas. Mash the potatoes until they are free from lumps and season them well with butter, salt, and white pepper. Add hot milk enough to make a fluffy mixture. Use a pastry tube or spatula to shape them into nests about as big around as a teacup and half as deep. Brown them delicately in the oven and slip off onto the hot platter with the juicy broiled chops. Creamed carrots or mushrooms are also good in the potato nests.

Frozen Raisin Custard

Pour 1 cup rich milk heated to the scalding point over 2 slightly beaten eggs that have been mixed with ½ cup sugar and ⅛ teaspoon salt. Strain and cook in a double boiler until thick and smooth, stirring constantly. Pour over 1 cup seedless raisins and cool. Fold into 2 cups cream, whipped until stiff and sweetened with 1/3 cup sugar and 1 teaspoon vanilla. Turn into the tray of an automatic refrigerator and freeze until firm, stirring once.

GRAPES WITH CHEESE

Perhaps it is not generally known, but grapes combined with cheeses of the Liederkranz and Camembert variety make an alliance well worth trying out on the palate.

MODERN WOMEN

Husband Being Supported Is Never Really Contented With His Lot

By MARIAN MAYS MARTIN

A MAN and woman apply for the same job, one which both feel equally competent to fill. Who gets the job—and why? The woman, you think, because she will expect less money for the same amount of work. The man, another thinks because he is sure to be more useful. The magazine, Independent Woman, stages a contest to get at the truth of this problem, but mainly to ascertain whether women have to do better work than men in order to earn the same salary.

MRS. MARTIN

"Of course, we have to be better than men," women say, but is this true? What you think Independent Woman wants to know. Everyone's experience throws some light on this pertinent question.

Incidentally, the magazine, in its contest announcement, says:

"We are fair-minded. The men will have a chance to tell their side later. But they'll have to be pretty good to convince us, for example, that men teachers deserve salaries almost twice as large as women in similar classifications. The disparity exists today, if we may believe figures compiled by the United States Office of Education. And there is practically the same disparity in industrial wages."

Leaving fair play entirely out of the question, such is undoubtedly the situation in the commercial world, as well as in the field cited. This being the case, women have a slight edge on that little matter of job-getting. How she holds it after it is hers is strictly her own problem. She must be as competent as a man—if not more so.

Naturally, an employer's preference and prejudice has a good deal to do in determining whether the job shall be held down by a man or a woman. Women are voted a nuisance in plenty of offices, and in these, of course, only the most indispensable women are ever considered.

Men Secretaries

A growing number of executives are engaging men secretaries. The preference is sometimes their wives', rather than their own, but, nevertheless, the man secretary is an answer to a prayer for the executive with a jealous wife, or the one with an overly affectionate nature.

Woman's traitional talent for detail gives her the slight edge on men applicants for such jobs. Unquestionably, men bring sufficient knowledge of such duties to offset a woman's native-born talent.

It was the war, and its subsequent shortage of men, that placed women in positions formerly sacred to men. Because they held down jobs for less money, men found it increasingly, and surprisingly, difficult to get back their jobs. This has greatly complicated the machinery.

The back-to-the-kitchen move now on naturally arouses the ire of women who have made good in outside jobs. They feel discriminated against when it is suggested they resign so that the job may revert to a man whose capabilities for holding down said job are untried.

Whether women have had heretofore to be as efficient as men to hold their jobs, it is apparent enough that from now on, with more competition than ever, they will most certainly have to be more capable than men in order to draw, not only the same wage, but any wage at all.

Pay Envelope Important

A weekly pay envelope spoils any able-bodied, mentally alert woman for home duties, which are as arduous as office work and with no remuneration save the privilege of being one's own boss.

Because it is so terribly demoralizing to unemployed husbands to have employed wives, such wives would, I feel sure, gladly relinquish their jobs if it would assure work for their unemployed husbands.

Nature never intended men to be supported by women. When circumstances force them to live for any length of time on money earned by their wives, their resentment is so great that all manner of complications and upsets occur.

No matter how strong may be the affection that binds a husband and wife, it is never quite vital enough to withstand the upheaval of the usual social order.

Women have a strong distaste for supporting husbands, excepting as a temporary measure.

They are not very good sports about it. Most men appreciate this and would do practically anything to escape from being placed in this unenviable position. It's taken a good many years to get them to submit to the self-supporting wife, or 50-50 system. Naturally, independent women revel in such an arrangement, and households conducted on this plan are usually smooth running.

If, however, there is to be but one breadwinner in a family, no sane person has any doubt as to who that should be, his ability for the job notwithstanding.

You and Your Child

When Child Speaks Be Courteous; Listen

By JANE HERBERT GOWARD

ELEVEN-YEAR-OLD HELEN came into the house rosy-cheeked and exhilarated from playing in the open. She called to out her mother, who was busy mixing batter for a cake. The greeting was returned, and Helen pulled off her street clothes, chattering excitedly the while. Mother caught only half sentences of what she was saying, and when Helen stooped over to take off her rubbers there was no meaning at all to the incoherent chattering that reached her. Used to Helen's chattering, mother went on beating the cake batter complacently. It made no difference to her that she did not know what the child was saying. After all, how important could it be? Besides, she was too busy to be bothered.

MRS. GOWARD

Helen came bounding into the kitchen, still chattering. Then out of the clear sky, or so it seemed to mother, she asked, "Don't you think so, mother?" "Why—why, certainly," she replied lamely, and looked sidewise at the child for evidence of whether she had guessed the right answer. This time, however, it proved the wrong guess. Helen's look was angry and disgusted. "You weren't even listening," she said bitterly. "I'm sorry, dear. I was busy. Tell me again in here where I can hear you. How do you expect me to hear when you do your talking out in the hall?" "Why didn't you call out to me that you couldn't hear?" Helen shapped back.

The parent who makes a practice of pretending to listen when he is not is sure to be found out sooner or later. When this happens the child will stop confiding. It may take years. Children are gullible. They like to believe they are interesting to their parents as persons.

If a parent is ill or too busy to listen, he may suggest that the child tell him about it later. But he should not make it a habit. Be glad he brings you confidences. Make yourself listen, and in time there will be a close bond of friendship to reward you for your pains.

RECORD-HERALD

Published Every Morning Except Mondays and the Days Following Holidays by the Record-Herald Printing and Publishing Co.
2201 Macdonald Avenue Telephone Richmond 70 and 71

C. E. MILNES.....President and Manager
GROVER E. MILNES.....Business Manager

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF RICHMOND

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
ONE MONTH—By Carrier.....50c
ONE YEAR.....$6.00

Entered At The Postoffice At Richmond, California As Second Class Matter

TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 21, 1936.

Lodge and Meeting Notices

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS—Richmond Lodge, No. 13, meets every Wednesday night at K. of P. hall, Fifth St. near Macdonald. Visitors always welcome.
W. C. RICHARDS, C. C.
F. G. BLACKHART, K.R.S.

EL RICHMOND AERIE NO. 354 F. O. E. meets every Thursday at 8 p. m. in Brotherhood Hall, 257 Fifth St. F. V. Brewen, Worthy President, 55 Nineteenth Street Richmond, Phone Rich 2455. W. McChristian, Sec., Phone 1085, Dr. J. W. Bumgarner, Phys., 906 Macdonald Ave. Phone 78-W, —house 76-R.

CLEANERS & DYERS

CLEANING—pressing mending or repairing. All work guaranteed. Phone Richmond 452. MAYER'S AMERICAN CLEANING WORKS. 1116 Macdonald Avenue.

WINES AND

WINE in your container. Sherry, Muscatel, gal. $1.00. Claret, gal. 60 cents. Tax paid. Free del. Lee's Liquor Store, 2209 Macdonald avenue. Phone Richmond 344.

Not Just Another Pill To Deaden Pain

But a wonderful modern medicine which acts upon the conditions which CAUSE the pain. Take them regularly and you should suffer less and less each month. PERSISTENT USE BRINGS PERMANENT RELIEF. Sold at all good drug stores. Small size 50¢.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S TABLETS

FOR RELIEF AND PREVENTION OF PERIODIC PAINS

CLASSIFIED SECTION

Two Cents Per Word Per Day—Minimum Charge, 35c

MISCELLANEOUS—FOR SALE

FURS—Factory Samples; fur coats jackets, foxes, collars. Huge stock. Furs remodeled. "The House of 1000 Fur Bargains". Dow's Wholesale Furs. 133 Kearny St., San Francisco. 11-23-tf.

RADIOS

FOR SALE GIBAP, second hand radio in A-1 condition. V. G. Electric Co., 1314 Macdonald avenue, telephone Rich. 933. 12-29-1mo.

FEED AND FUEL

FUEL & FEED, coal wood and kindling; leading brands of chicken feed and laying mash. Special prices for Cash and Carry. Richmond Feed and Fuel Co., 401 Sixteenth street, telephone Rich. 890. 12-18-1mo.

BICYCLES

GOOD REBUILT BICYCLES, from $10.00 up. See the Richmond Cycle'ery for lowest cost. Phone 3270 for service, John Null, 311 23rd street, telephone 3270 12-19-1 mo.

FURNISHED ROOMS

FURNISHED ROOMS—Day, week or month. Hot and cold water, clean, courteous service. Tel. Rich. 509; 332-2nd street, near Macdonald. 12-17-1mo.

BUILDING MATERIAL

USED BUILDING MATERIAL, doors, windows, bricks, plumbing and electrical supplies. Prices reasonable. Firewood 25c a sack. P. Mahomed. 1600 Barrett Ave. 12-17-1mo.

FREE! STOMACH ULCERS, GAS PAINS, INDIGESTION relieved quick. Get free sample doctor's prescription Ugda, at La Moine's, Economy and Conn Drug Stores

Real Estate For Sale

NOT FOR SALE, but giving away at just half the assessed valuation, business lot on Washington Avenue, Point Richmond. If there is any speculative margin left in real property, this is an opportunity. If interested, write Box M., care of Record-herald.

READ THE LATEST WORLD NEWS IN THE RECORD-HERALD

FOR SALE at a bargain—Household furniture including rugs, chairs, etc. Phone Richmond 2707 or Richmond 430 for further particulars. 1-12-3t.

MAN WANTED for Rawleigh Route of 800 families. Write today. Rawleigh, Dept. CAA-187-SA. Oakland, Calif.

You are Cordially Invited to Visit
OUR NEW BEAUTY SALON
at 1733 SAN PABLO AVE.
Permanent Waves..$2.50 up
Ringlet, Duart and Ringlet
EDITH'S BEAUTY SHOP
Phone Richmond 2107

RYAN
Funeral Home

A Service of Distinction
Phone Day or Night
Richmond 1-0-3-7
Macdonald Ave., at 24th
LADY ATTENDANT

TOOK OFF 17 LBS. OF UGLY FAT

HEEDED DOCTOR'S ADVICE

Mrs. Robert Hickey, Roseville, Calif., writes: "My doctor prescribed Kruschen Salts for me—he said they wouldn't hurt me in the least. I've lost 17 lbs. in 6 weeks. Kruschen is worth its weight in gold."

Mrs. Hickey paid no attention to gossipers who said there was no safe way to reduce. She wisely followed her doctor's advice. Why don't YOU?

Get a jar of Kruschen to-day (lasts 4 weeks and costs but a trifle). Simply take half teaspoonful in cup of hot water every morning. All druggists.

One Killed, 3 Are Injured By Electric Wires

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 20.—UP—One man was killed and three seriously burned when a structural steel train upon which they were riding struck a live wire tonight.

The men were employes of the Pennsylvania Iron & Steel Company, installing steel on the train.

Joe Apodaca, 48, was killed instantly.

The injured were Frank Dueney, 48; Fred R. Collins, 48; Ingwald Munson, 44.

They were treated at the Mission Hospital, Huntington Park. They suffered extensive burns, but are expected to live.

Stanford May Ban Sororities

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Jan 20—UP—With three sororities banned from rushing during the current semester, Stanford University administration officials hinted today steps may be taken toward abolition of the women's organizations on the campus.

Three prominent sororities received notification they would not be permitted to pledge until fall because of alleged illegal activities.

The ruling was made after a meeting of leaders of the nine campus sororities in which the three restricted houses were accused of "unfair" procedure in obtaining members.

WRESTLERS MATCHED

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20—UP—Tauato Higami of Japan world's junior middleweight wrestling champion, meets Lord Lansdowne, British grapler, in the main event at Civic auditorium Thursday.

New Deal War To Be Carried To The Rockies

PALO ALTO, Jan. 20—UP—Former President Herbert Hoover will carry his speaking campaign against the New Deal into the intermountain region March 7, it was announced today.

On that date he will speak either in Denver or Colorado Springs, Colo., his secretary, Paul Sexson, said.

Mr. Hoover's next speaking engagement will be in Portland, Ore., where he will deliver a Lincoln's birthday address on "The State of the Nation."

He also is scheduled to attend the 10th anniversary exercises of Claremont College in Southern California but was not expected to make a major speech on that occasion.

Mr. Hoover returned to his home on the Stanford University campus Sunday following a trip to New York and a speaking engagement in Lincoln, Neb., where he attacked the present administration's farm policies.

SOCIALITE SUED

RENO, Nev., Jan. 20.—Richard Stoddard Aldrich, New York social registerite, was named defendant to a divorce suit filed here today by Mrs. Helen Beals Aldrich. She charged cruelty. They were married July 1, 1927 in New York City and have two children. Property rights and custody of the children have been settled by agreement.

SUPREME JUSTICE ILL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Justice Willis Van Devanter, 77, who has sided against the New Deal in several Supreme Court decisions, was confined to his bed today by bronchial trouble.

JACK RIVIS, son of C. O. Davis, commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Mrs. Mabel Davis, is recuperating at a local hospital following a serious operation performed by Dr. E. R. Guinan Saturday.

Dr Scholl's
Foot Comfort Appliances
can relieve you of foot troubles as they have thousands of other sufferers. We have these famous devices here at the store. Our foot comfort demonstrator will gladly show what they can do for you.
Don't wish you had come in—be glad you did

STAR BRAND SHOES

A full line of this standard brand of footwear carried in stock. Poll Parrot money given with each purchase, dollar for dollar.

Arch support shoes for men and women

B. B. Comfort Shoe Store
Arch Supports from $1 up
720 Macdonald Ave.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas blows up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your headaches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

If takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Accept a substitute. 25c at drug stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

TRY A CLASSIFIED IN THE RECORD-HERALD FOR RESULTS

Crossword Puzzle

By LARS MORRIS

ACROSS

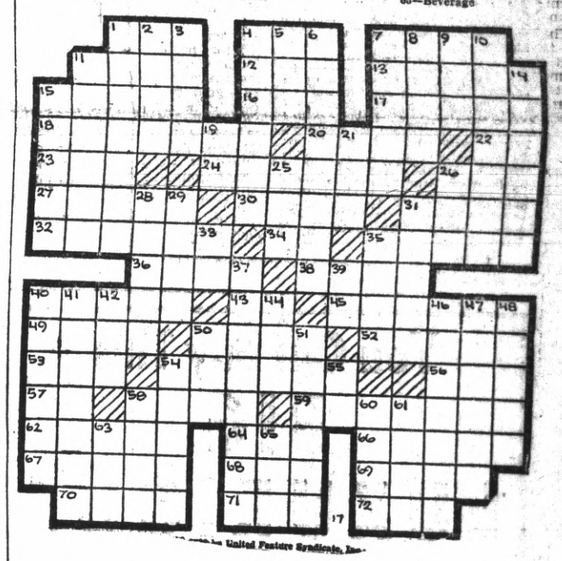

1—Watering place
4—Large receptacle
7—Heavenly body
11—Family
12—Before
13—Imprisons
15—Sweeping skirt of dress
16—Soak flax
17—Body of water
18—Gives
20—Rage
22—River in Italy
23—Sum
24—Opposite of serenade
26—Through
27—Give forth
30—Food from palms
31—Wither
32—Narrow waterway
34—Proceed
36—Group of students
38—Pace of horse
38—Girl's name
40—Ornamental pendant
43—Dingering
45—Town in France
49—Small dog
50—Sacrifice hit (baseball)
52—Measure gravitational pull on
53—Mr. Van Winkle
54—Largest city in the world
56—Metal-bearing rock
57—That thing
58—State of mind

ANSWER TO PREVIOUS PUZZLE

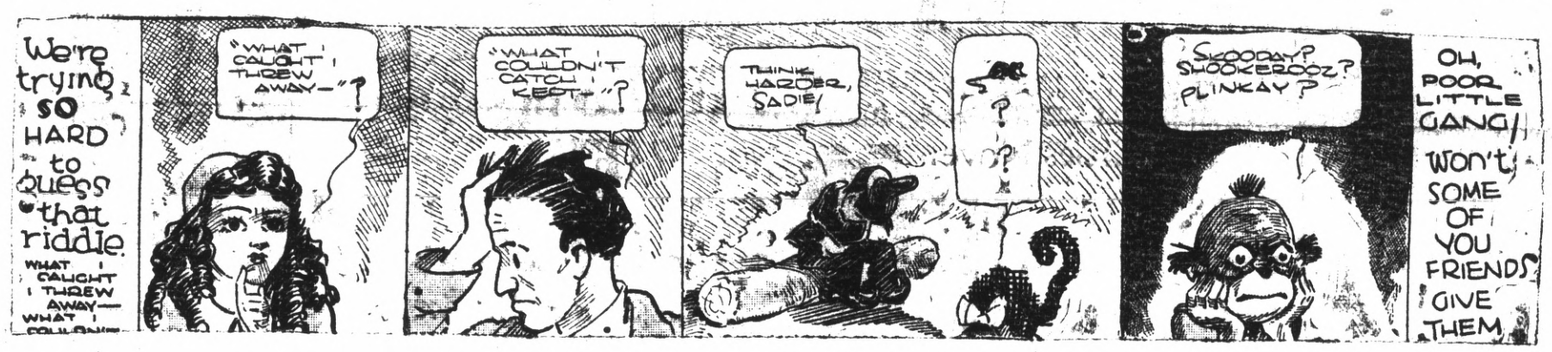

DOWN

1—Libel
2—Gave money
3—English queen
4—Against
5—Exist
6—Four-sided figure
8—Diplomacy
9—Mature
10—Harvesters
11—Financial standing
14—Sounds in sleep
15—Flat plates
19—Sun god
21—Fuss
23—Sack
26—Vegetable
28—Nile fish
29—Filth
31—Human property
32—Toward
35—Men on ship
37—Rolled along
39—Bone
42—Continent
41—Leg coverings
42—Part of mouth
44—Termination
46—Disturbing the peace
47—Heron feathers
48—Drops of skin
50—Sound of disapproval
51—Walk like child
54—Defeated one
55—Denial
58—Table land
60—Knot
61—Turkish noble
63—Short swim
65—Beverage

© United Feature Syndicate, Inc.

MARY MIXUP

By Brinkerhoff

FRITZI RITZ

By Ernie Bushmiller

LOOY DOT DOPE

By JOHN DEVLIN

Things That Never Happen

HOTEL STANFORD
SAN FRANCISCO
300 Modern Fireproof Rooms
Rates $3 to $5 Daily
FREE GARAGE

WALES WILL BE KING OF ALL BRITAIN

(Continued from page 1)

pire, Edward of Wales was its salesman. Economists say he did more than any other Briton to bring the empire back from the brink of the world's worst depression. He toured everywhere, preaching the gospel "buy British" and laying a path of good will on which English manufacturers trod to prosperity by selling their products across the sea.

He was born at White Lodge, Richmond, in the reign of that stern little lady, Queen Victoria. He was christened with seven names, his tiny body covered with Queen Victoria's bridal veil, with water brought from the River Jordan in Palestine.

NO RELIEF

For Edward there was no relief from rigorous duties and studies: he lived in the Victorian age when the motto was spare the rod and spoil the child. Queen Victoria banished him from the dinner table one night when he still was a child for speaking out of turn. The future King of England crawled under the table and reappeared five minutes later minus all his clothing. Even the stern queen smiled.

Early in Edward's boyhood, Victoria died and an earlier Edward—Edward VII—ascended the throne. Those were busy years for the youngster. His tutors took up much of his time, and his mother and father insisted he should pay strict attention to his studies. The young Edward became keenly interested in sports and once raised such a terrific racket on the grounds of Sandringham Palace—where his father died — that court officials had to hurry out and break up a cricket game.

NEW TODAY

FREE! STOMACH, ULCERS, GAS PAINS, INDIGESTION relieved quick. Get free sample doctor's Prescription Udga, at La Moine's Economy and Conn Drug Stores. 1-21-1t.

MALE INSTRUCTION — Will personally interview men willing to work hard to qualify for good-pay positions in Refrigeration and Air Conditioning business. Prefer men with fair education, mechanically inclined, now employed, willing to devote some spare time to preliminary training to become installaiton and service experts. Write fully, giving age, phone, present occupation. Utilities Eng. Inst., G c/o Record-Herald. 1-19-2t.

King Reviews Troops

FRONT AND CENTER is King Victor Emman[illegible] of Italy reviewing the troops of the Camicie Nere Division—the "Tevere"—before they lef[illegible] Capua for the East African front.

King George Was Loved By Subjects

(Continued from page 1)

royalty is a thing apart, to be secluded from the people, preserved as a relic of the right and might of kings of the Middle Ages. But for all this, his people knew him as a kindly gentleman. His life was no familiar to them as that of an ordinary human being but they recognized his desires to benefit his empire.

NO SCANDAL

In all the years of his reign, there was none of the sometimes scandalous stories of gay doings among the bright lights that surrounded Edward, his predecessor. George attended strictly to business. His business being the guardianship and welfare of the empire. Queen Victoria's court was severe with all the narrow-mindedness of [illegible] ninties. George's court was decorous but recognized the modern trend of civilization.

Until his serious illness in 1928 the king was the king, in capital letters, to his people. When bronchial pneumonia almost killed him at Christmas time of that year there was an unprecedented outburst of affection which surprised even the royal family, long accustomed to cheering and flag-waving.

A COINCIDENT

This affection has been steadily and increasingly apparent ever since and grew into remarkable demonstration for the silver jubilee last year. Since 1928, the people have thought of him as a kindly old gentleman, rather than an aloof king-emperor.

A bad cold, which resulted fatally put King George on the throne. A bad cold, also fatal, was responsible for his death. One bleak week in January, 44 years ago brought him from the comparative obscurity of a second son to the blinding limelight of ruler.

Repeal Of Shipping Law Is Opposed

(Continued from page 1)

made rapid growth in the tonnage passing over its wharves; and

WHEREAS there is now before the Congress of the United States a proposed ship subsidy bill in the interest of a better merchant marine; and

WHEREAS, the Pacific Coast Association of Port Authorities at its annual session at Vancouver, B. C., August 15-17, 1935, went on record as opposing the granting of any subsidy to any carrier who is or may become a member of a conference or to a carrier who may concur in the agreements, understandings, or other arrangements or in the policies of a conference or an association of carriers which prevents or attempts to prevent the serving of any port within the continental limits of the United States located on any improvement project designed for the accommodation of ocean-going vessels authorized by the Congress of the United States or through it by any other agency of the Federal Government; and

WHEREAS, we are in full accord with the policy as determined in said resolution of Pacific Coast Association of Port Authorities,

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF RICHMOND AS FOLLOWS:

First: That this City Council for and on behalf of the citizens of the City of Richmond hereby declare itself unalterably opposed to the repeal of the "Allin Amendment" which is now a part of the "Intercoastal Shipping Act of 1933";

Second: That it advises and urges the enactment of an amendment to any subsidy bill before the Congress of the United States, the purpose of which amendment shall bar the subsidizing of any carrier from becoming a member of a conference or association of carriers which either prevents or attempts to prevent a member carrier from serving any American port.

River Firm Sued By Rival Concern For Big Damages

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20.—UP—Charging violation of the Sherman anti-trust laws, Paul A. Scherer, president of Freighters, Inc., bay and river transportation firm, today filed a $450,000 damage suit in Federal court against a rival firm, River Lines, Inc.

Scherer charges that during the bargemen's strike last year his firm and River Lines entered into an agreement not to negotiate separately with the strikers. In spite of this agreement, Scherer charges in his complaint, River Lines made a separate agreement with the bargemen, the contract containing a so-called "hot cargo" clause, providing that the bargemen would not be regarded as violating their contract if they refused to work cargo under conditions declared unfair by any maritime labor organization.

Scherer charges the contract between River Lines and the bargemen constitutes unlawful restraint of trade. The amount sought in the suit is three times the actual asserted damage.

READ THE LATEST WORLD NEWS IN THE RECORD-HERALD

...a word in edgewise; wise and otherwise

P. R. MILNES

(Continued from page 1)

into the open to defend the cause or principles in which he or she believes.

I can see the reason in this case very plainly, for the cloak of secrecy is but an admission of the charge I made that the writer resented brains in other people and the earning capacity of brains. The fact that she and her husband are on the relief rolls of the county is convincing proof of the soundness of the charge. That unfortunate situation in itself is not a crime for many worthy people have found themselves the unwilling recipients of charity, but it ill behooves the unsuccessful and the misfits to stand in the darkness and shoot venom-tipped arrows at men and women whose careers are synonymous with success. Invariably they in some way disclose their identity and reveal the underlying reason for their attack.

The bitterness and the heartburning were in reality not aimed at the lawyer upon whom she vented her spleen, neither was it any laudable desire that brains be used in the cause of decency, but the outcrying of an anguished soul which realized that to the lot of herself and husband would never come the pleasure of tasting of the fruit of success.

Guilty of being polysyllabiec, as the writer strongly intimates, does not prevent my having a sincere feeling of sorrow for this woman, who although professing to be a follower of Christ, certainly fails to emulate his words and actions. Perhaps I am a trifle rusty on my Bible, but I have read it from cover to cover several times and I fail to remember of any instance of his sending an anonymous letter.

Curry Talks On Laws To Curb Speed Of Autos

"Sound traffic laws and their vigilant enforcement will go a long way, but in the final analysis, safety on our streets and highways depends upon the active co-operation of every person who operates a motor vehicle."

This was the opinion of Harry Curry of the Curry Auto Sales Co., Chrysler-Plymouth dealers here, in reference to the legislative measures now being discussed in many states that would prohibit the use of motor vehicles making more than 40 miles per hour.

"These laws could be easily circumvented by 'Jesse' mechanics," he said. "The real key to decreasing our yearly toll of traffic accidents lies in bringing every motorist and pedestrian to a full realization of the importance of safety.

"For many years past, leading manufacturers have adopted every possible safety factor as speedily as it was developed. But they cannot control the mental equipment of the man behind the wheel."

Mr. Curry points out that some of the advances toward greater safety have been: 4-wheel hydraulic brakes; all-steel safety bodies; low center of gravity; safety glass; full-vision windshields; anti-glare head lamps and redistribution of weight.

APPROVAL IS GIVEN BILL BY SOLONS

(Continued from page 1)

for the House bill which made no provision for raising the money to meet the veterans' debt.

Congressional leaders and heads of the veterans' organizations are united behind the Senate measure.

13 VOTE "NO"

Fifty-six Democrats, 15 Republicans, two Farmer-Laborites and one Progressive voted for the compromise. Nine Democrats and seven Republicans voted "no." They were: Democrats:—Brown, Bulkey, Burke Byrd, Gerry, Glass, Hayden, King and Wagner; Republicans—Couzens, Hale, Hastings, Johnson, Keyes Townsend and Vandenberg.

Of the 30 members of the Senate up for re-election only one Democrat, Glass of Virginia, and three Republicans, Couzens of Michigan, Hastings of Deleware and Keyes of New Hampshire, voted against the measure. The same group, including Senators Bailey, Democrat, North Carolina; Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi; McNary, Republican, Oregon; Robinson, Democrat, Arkansas; White, Republican, Maine, voted last May against the Patman inflation bill which Mr. Roosevelt vetoed.

Queen, Family At Monarch's Side As Death Comes

(Continued from page 1)

his favorite white pony outside Sandringham grounds.

He had been in delicate health since 1928 when he contracted bronchial pneumonia. Only a "miracle" of medical science saved his life then.

"SLIGHT COLD"

Friday morning his physicians announced the sovereign was suffering from a slight cold. No anxiety was felt. However, his condition grew gradually worse and early Saturday oxygen was rushed to Sandringham.

When the king continued to sink, additional doctors were summoned. They utilized every resource but the monarch's age and overtaxed heart were against him although he fought gallantly.

SUBJECTS AT PRAYER

Faithful subjects gathered outside the palace gates, guarded by a strong force of police. When news of their sovereign's death was announced, many wept. Others knelt in the snow and prayed.

A meeting of the Privy Council was summoned immediately for St. James palace at which orders were to be given for proclamation of the new king. Those present were to be re-sworn as members of a newly constituted council.

HOUSES TO MEET

Several public announcements are to follow. The first will be signed by the male members of the royal family, the Archbishop of Canterbury, the privy councillors in attendance, and the lord mayor, aldermen and other officials of London, making known the death of His Majesty and pronouncing the new king's succession to the throne.

Both houses of Parliament will meet to take the oaths of allegiance and supremacy. The formal public proclamation of the new monarch, accompanied by simultaneous firing of guns in St. James Park and the tower, will be held within a few days.

WORLD MOURNS LOSS

All the world joined England and the British Empire in mourning the death of the king, whom every one knew as a kindly old gentleman. Hundreds of messages of condolence poured in from all parts of the world.

King George's reign will go down to posterity, not because of his personal character, which was over shadowed by an apparently unconquerable shyness, but because it probably has seen more history made than that of any of his predecessors.

George was not an overly strong child, and, in consequence, was quiet and somewhat reticent. After a career in the British navy, which began when he was 12, he succeeded to the throne on the death of his father, King Edward VII, on May 6, 1910.

MYSTERY OF ABANDONED CAR SOLVED

(Continued from page 1)

cal policeman who made a brief search of the neighborhood. Later the machine was towed to a local garage and Oakland police were asked to contact Mrs. Cortleyou.

The woman was mystified by the disappearance. She said her husband had said that he was going to Sacramento on a business trip.

She told officers that Cortelyou suffered from heart trouble and that whenever he felt an attack coming on he generally halted his car by the road.

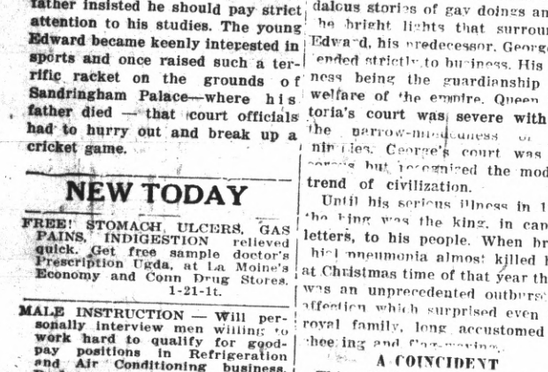

TO RETURN HOME

At the time of the mysterious disappearance friends expressed fear that the man might have been stricken by a heart attack.

He will be returned to his home in Oakland today or tomorrow from Tucson, Oakland police said.

You Can Buy This BIG LUXURIOUS CHRYSLER

for only a few dollars more per month than Lowest-Priced cars

Big-car comfort . . . big-car luxury . . . big-car performance—at a cost of only a few dollars more per month than lowest-priced cars!

$760 and up Factory List

195 inches of custom-car luxury. Smartly styled interiors. "Chair-high" cushions . . . deep, restful. Soft-acting Mola steel springs — 100% Hydraulic Brakes — safety-steel bodies with safety glass all around — Chrysler's famous Floating Power — 100-horsepower motor that gives flashing performance . . . amazing economy.

Why accept LESS than Chrysler offers? Why be satisfied with plain transportation when Chrysler costs so little? Let us give you a Chrysler demonstration, today!

Bigger Trade-in Allowance • Low Finance Rate

CURRY AUTO SALES

CHRYSLER-PLYMOUTH DEALER

1401 MacDonald Ave. RICHMOND Richmond 1350

SEE US ABOUT A Plymouth ... WE MAKE BETTER DEALS

LAST DAY- Saturday, Jan. 25th

Western Auto Supply Co's RADIO SALE

METAL TUBES in these ★ NEW 1936 Western Air Patrol Radios bring you hitherto unknown Radio Reception!

Big Reductions on Western Air Patrol Home Radios!!

4-Tube Table Model

Here's a greater value than you'd ever expect at such a low price . . . a compact 4-Tube Receiver, 10x7⅞x6 inches, with illuminated airplane type dial . . . dynamic speaker, and rich walnut finish cabinet inlaid in ebony and lemon-wood. Surprising volume and selectivity . . . excellent tonal quality. Model 476 . . . . $12.95

4-Tube Table Model. . . . Very powerful . . . Gets Broadcasts, Police Calls. Model 477 . . . . $17.85

5-Tube Superheterodyne Table Model . . . A Broadcast Receiver with greater volume, distance. Model 478 . . . . $21.50

Sets listed above equipped with latest type glass tubes. Metal-Glass tubes available at slight additional cost.

Startling New All-Metal Tube Table Models

"Round the World Reception" . . . in this 6 All-Metal Tube Superheterodyne Table Model Radio. With every advanced feature in Radio . . . and a handsome upright style Walnut Cabinet . . . it's a marvelous value at its low price. Receives Broadcasts, Police Calls, Amateurs and Airplanes, and Foreign Short Waves. Model 480. (Shown at left). $37.75

All-Metal Tubes bring a new thrill to radio reception in this 6-Tube Superheterodyne Table Model Radio. Features include . . . Automatic Volume Control, Full Vision Illuminated Dial, 6-inch Dynamic Speaker, Continuously Variable Tone Control. Gets Broadcasts, Police Calls. Model 479. (Second from top) . . . $29.50

Radio Perfection... 11 All-Metal Tube Console

Here's the Radio that HAS EVERYTHING . . . 11 All-Metal Tubes . . . "Round the World Reception" . . . High Fidelity with 12-inch Auditorium type Dynamic Speaker . . . hitherto unknown tonal perfection, with recessed speaker and resonance tone chambers at sides. Walnut and Ebony cabinet in beautiful, modern design. This Radio Sensation is priced far below comparable sets. Model 483 . . . . $89.50

7 All-Metal Tube All Wave Superheterodyne Console Model 481 . . . . $44.50

9 All-Metal Tube All Wave Superheterodyne Console Model 482 . . . . $69.50

Modernize with Metal-Glass Tubes

Radios now equipped with glass tubes may be modernized with standard base Metal-Glass Tubes. Ask for low prices.

$1 Per Week! PAYMENTS ON SOME MODELS AS LOW AS $1 PER WEEK.

The Mighty Midget Model "15" Table Set

Sale Price

$9.95 with tubes

Modern in design, modern in construction. Shaded walnut finish. Only 9½x7½x5½ inches. 4 latest type tubes. Wonderful tone.

FREE! Radio Globe

Shows world short-wave stations.

Time all over the world.

10 inches high— 7 inch globe.

This Globe FREE with every ALL WAVE metal tube set during this Great Sale.

This big Radio Globe is a great help in logging Short-Wave stations. All countries are shown in beautiful tints, and lettering is easy to read! DON'T WAIT . . . buy an ALL WAVE, Metal Tube Western Air Patrol NOW and get this splendid Radio Globe FREE . . . !

5 and 7-Tube Battery Models

This 5-tube Table Model Broadcast Receiver has every advanced feature in Battery Type Radios. Superheterodyne circuit, fine tonal qualities and distance, low current consumption. Complete with "A" Pack, "B" and "C" Batteries $37.50

7-Tube ALL WAVE Console (Complete with Storage Battery) . . . $67.50

Hear It!

3 Marvelous Models

Motorola

Ask about "Magic Eliminode" that eliminates spark plug suppressors . . . and other features.

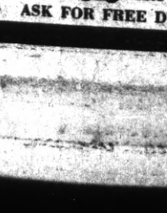

Low Prices • Terms Free Demonstration

Open Evenings

Western Auto Supply Co. More than 170 Stores in the West

13th & Macdonald. Tel. Rich 404

Tunetone Car Radio

A high quality, LOW PRICE Auto Radio

$29.75 with Tubes

ASK FOR FREE DEMONSTRATION